

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

Life Changing Relationship with Christ

Life-change is synonymous with knowing Christ. If you have been touched by Christ, it is impossible not to be changed! God has given me the privilege and joy to witness up close and personal, a life that has been changed in a "Paul on Damascus road" kind of way.

Since young, Dad was never known to be someone who pursued God. Much like the rest of the world, Dad's heart was filled with the desire for money and status. And he was pretty successful in attaining those temporal treasures! Dad had a mind of his own and had a strong will. It was quite hard to win any argument with him!

When Mum and I became Christians, Dad set out on a personal mission to "rescue" us from fanatical Christianity! But how can a mere man pit himself against the God of the universe? The more he listened to find fault with the Word of God, the more amazing was God's grace and mercy. A haughty man was humbled. A self-made man became entirely reliant upon God. A life filled with self became a life filled with God. If he ran hard to pursue temporal treasures before he came to know God, he is literally sprinting this last lap (Dad knew God when he was 51).

Do you have a loved one you wished would be touched by God's love? Invite them this Christmas and give them a chance to know your God. Their lives may be changed forever. It IS possible.

Blessings, Benita Teo
