way by which to keep the love of the world out of our

in our hearts the love

By faith Moses.....

choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God
than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

(Heb 11:24-26)

He considered the reproach of Christ
greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt,
for he was looking to the reward.

(Heb 11:24-26)

The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man found and covered up. Then in his joy he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

The first world-centered love of our hearts can be expelled only by a new love and affection—for God and from God.

The love of the world and the love of the Father cannot dwell together in the same heart. But the love of the world can be driven out only by the love of the Father.

Jesus Christ

I made known to them your name,
and I will continue to make it known,
that the love with which you have loved me may be in them,
and I in them. (John 17:26 ESV)

Love for God

We love because he first loved us.
(1 John 4:19 ESV)

In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him.

God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith—that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.
