whoever does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor is the one who does not love his brother.

For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

(1 John 3:11 ESV)

We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death.

1. The Meaning

A close-up photograph of a person's arm holding a bright red rectangular sign. The sign has the words "What is Love?" written in large, bold, black, hand-drawn letters. The background is a blurred green, suggesting an outdoor setting with foliage. The lighting is bright, creating a slight shadow on the sign's surface.

What is Love?

By this we know love,
that he laid down his life for us
(1 John 3:16 ESV)

Love is the Power to unconditionally sacrifice
for the Good of Others

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE ~ The Love of God ~

“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, .....

For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? You therefore must be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

(Matthew 5:43-48 ESV)

Love is the Power to unconditionally sacrifice
for the Good of Others

We should not be like Cain, who was of the evil one and murdered his brother. (1 John 3:12 ESV)

Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer
(1 John 3:15 ESV)

Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer,
and you know that no murderer has eternal life
abiding in him.

(1 John 3:15 ESV)

Everyone who hates (is hating) his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

(1 John 3:15 ESV)

2. The Manifestations

By this we know love, that he laid down his life for us, and we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.

(1 John 3:16 ESV)

But if anyone has the world's goods and sees his brother in need, yet closes his heart against him, how does God's love abide in him?

(1 John 3:17 ESV)

What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and filled,” without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

(James 2:14-17 ESV)

Little children, let us not love in word or talk but in deed and in truth.

(1 John 3:18 ESV)

So then, as we have opportunity, let us do good to everyone, and especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Let the thief no longer steal, but rather let him labor, doing honest work with his own hands, so that he may have something to share with anyone in need.

Love indeed

but you cannot love without giving

CS Lewis

"It is easier to be enthusiastic about Humanity than it is to love individual men and women, especially those who are uninteresting, exasperating, depraved, or otherwise unattractive. Loving everybody in general may be an excuse for loving nobody in particular."

'To love the world to me is no chore,
my big trouble is the man next door'

Love not because of the lives around you,
but because of His Life in you!
