

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

Gospel Light Social Media Platforms

“Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation” - Mark 16:15

In an age of information sharing, it is becoming increasingly convenient to share God’s truth. Here are 6 ways you can do that with our new social media platforms.

1. Our website

This is the main hub of our online activity. If you have friends who are new to Gospel Light, you can direct them here to read more about who we are as a church, and how they can come to know Christ’s love. We’ve also started a “60s with Pastor Jason” video series so you can easily share the most important points of the latest Sunday sermons with your loved ones.

2. Facebook

We consolidate church-wide announcements and update you on the work of each ministry in Gospel Light. During the recent Camp Conquest 2014, we posted daily updates through photos of the exciting and fun activities enjoyed by our youth!

3. Twitter

Want to get real-time updates at our events and Sunday sermons? Our Twitter folks are better at expressing themselves in 140 characters - you can share short excerpts from every sermon with your loved ones by retweeting them from our official Twitter account.

4. Instagram

If you prefer pictures to words, our Instagram team posts weekly encouragement through verses or quotes from famous Christian preachers. It’s also the best place to get quick sneak peeks into our events, such as Here & Now 2014.

5. YouTube

Gospel Light is the congregation sitting in this ballroom, but the Church extends beyond these walls. We have listeners on YouTube who watch the sermons uploaded there every week, and who are blessed by the Word preached. If you prefer listening instead of watching, head over to SermonAudio.com and download the mp3 file.

6. The Gospel Light mobile app

The latest addition to our growing social media network is our official mobile application. If you’re on the go, you can get access to the membership portal, or read the latest edition of SHINE here.

The power of social media lies in the fact that God’s truth can be spread across continents, over oceans and into homes - into people’s hearts. While it is God that harvests the seed, Christians are called to shine the gospel light for Him, not just on Sundays but every day of our lives. Nothing beats face-to-face communication, but these platforms are here to facilitate the sharing of the gospel truth, anytime, anywhere, to anyone.
