Gospel Light Youth Camp Thanksgiving

A month has passed since Camp Conquest 2014.

Even until today, my heart is bursting with joy and thanksgiving to God for blessing this Youth Camp. Not only did He bring in 45 new-comers, 16 precious souls professed their faith and many re-dedicated themselves to follow our Lord Jesus Christ. I am immensely grateful to all the helpers from various ministries coming together to serve the youth. It is all worth it for the cause of the Gospel!

Yu Fei, Shepherd – Youth

"The youth camp helped me to connect with God in an environment where the people are around to support me."

- Grace Ngooi (Gospeliter)

"I learnt a lot from Pastor Chee Keen's sermons especially the one about finding your identity in Christ."

- Dawn Lim (Gospeliter)

"Michelle went through the devotion with me during the second morning of the camp and I am very happy that I accepted Christ as my Saviour."

- Yion Waye (New Comer)

"What kept me going when I faced difficulties during camp was the thought that they were only temporary. Seeing my group members, in the long run, knowing and growing in Christ, that is permanent."

- Coby Sotelo (Small Group Leader)

"I can confidently say that the hours spent in preparing and praying are worth it. The youth of today are hungry for Him. They are longing and searching for more of Him and I'm glad that this camp gave them the opportunity for intimacy with Christ."

- Hannel Sinon (Games & Worship Leader)

PUNGGOL FUND

We give because we have been given much. We believe true giving is out of gratitude, and not out of guilt. And so we give because we have already been given so much, and not because we want to get more. Gospel-centred giving is because of Jesus and what He has done for us.

"Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce, then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your vats will be bursting with wine." Proverbs 3:9,10
