The Pursuit of Meaning

Ecclesiastes – Life under the Sun

Thanks for joining us on a brand new journey in our Sunday sermon series!

Starting today, we will embark on the Pursuit of Meaning through Ecclesiastes. And we are going to learn from Solomon, the wisest and wealthiest man in his time.

American poet Carl Sandburg compares life to an onion- you peel it back one layer at a time and you weep as you do. Deep down inside us, we know that there's just got to be more to life than what we see around us!!

But so often, we spend the rest of our lives aimlessly searching for meaning in all the wrong places.

Someone said, "By setting eternity in the human heart, God has ensured that that heart can never be filled or satisfied with things that belong to time alone. So Qoheleth (the writer of Ecclesiastes) anticipates St Augustine: 'Thou hast made us for Thyself, and our heart is restless till it finds its rest in Thee.'"

I pray this series will be a real blessing to your heart. God bless!
