LIFE UNDER THE SUN

The Mystery of Life

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:

a time to be born, and a time to die;

a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;

a time to kill, and a time to heal;

a time to break down, and a time to build up;

a time to weep, and a time to laugh;

a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;

a time to seek, and a time to lose;

a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

a time to tear, and a time to sew;

a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

a time to love, and a time to hate;

a time for war, and a time for peace.

What gain has the worker from his toil?

(Ecclesiastes 3:1-9 ESV)

I said in my heart with regard to the children of man that God is testing them that they may see that they themselves are but beasts. For what happens to the children of man and what happens to the beasts is the same; as one dies, so dies the other. They all have the same breath, and man has no advantage over the beasts, for all is vanity. All go to one place. All are from the dust, and to dust all return.

LIFE UNDER THE SUN

The Mystery of Life

My life is but a weaving
Betwixt my God and me,
I do not choose the colors
He worketh steadily.
Ofttimes He weaveth sorrow,
And I in foolish pride Forget He sees the upper
And I, the underside.
Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Will God unfold the pattern
And explain the reason why.
For the dark threads are as needful
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In a pattern He has planned.
