SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

PASTOR KAY HONG TO FOCUS ON MISSIONS

Pastor Kay Hong will be re-focusing his ministry to China Missions starting this month. Whilst he will still be based here in Singapore, he will be travelling much more between China and Indonesia in the coming months.

I have been blessed and encouraged by his and his wife, May's, ministry. They had just been back from China to spend more time with their unsaved and ageing parents when our church had to go through a transitional and unstable time. They supported myself in a critical period, looking into the various operational and administrative aspects of the local church. I am thankful for their love and support.

Whilst they served zealously in the local church, China and their disciples there have always been their greatest burden. Now that things in the local church are much better than before, Pastor Kay Hong will now redirect his attention to the mission field. They will also share more next week.

In the meanwhile, there will be some gaps- namely the role of Connections Head (overseeing our Sunday Experience and our Outreach Ministries) and Young Families Shepherd (caring for and leading the Young Families Care Group Leaders). We have spoken to suitable godly men and we are hopeful that they will serve in these areas of need. Please pray together with us for the Lord's perfect will to be done. And pray for Pastor Kay Hong and sister May in their renewed ventures in China Missions!
