

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

THANK GOD FOR A BLESSED CHILDREN CAMP

Thank God for a blessed children camp! The theme of the camp was “Eternity” and biblical truths were taught through engaging activities & messages.

One of the activities was the “Game of Life”. The children had to go through life activities at several stations which included a church. Children who visited the church and heard the gospel were given a cross. After an hour, the children were abruptly told their life ended. Children with crosses went to “heaven”. Those without went to “hell”. It was an object lesson to learn about living for eternity.

Another highlight was the children’s visit to the orphanage. We had games, made photo frames out of ice-cream sticks and placed photos in it. In appreciation, the orphans presented a song, “I Have a Maker”. Some of us teared upon hearing their worshipful voices. As orphans, they have nothing materially but their voices blessed our hearts about the infinite love of God.

Some children gave reflections of the camp.

“Before the camp, I was still wondering if I will go to Hell and wasn’t prepared to be captured at anytime. But after this camp, I am now sure that I will go to Heaven and to be ready to die.”

“I like the game of life because it teaches me about making decisions for eternity”

“I like the visit to the orphanage because it gave me a chance to bless others that are less fortunate”

“The messages had a big impact on me as I realized how exactly short our human lives are as compared to forever, which comes after death”

“I learned about how to live in the light of eternity (forever). We should spread the gospel around the world”

Praise God for the many blessings the children had at camp. Whether it is children camp or our Sunday ministry with the children, we want to bless and lead our children into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ.

Do pray for the Children Ministry. We also welcome you to explore serving in our Children Ministry.
