

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

CHURCH AND THE CITY

As we celebrate SG50, let's consider what the relationship between the Church and the City should be

1. Church in a City

This church ministers to one another within the church walls, but there is little effect on the people outside the 4 walls. The church is isolated from the city,

2. Church against the City

The mindset of the church is that we are "good" and that the city is "bad". It is an "us vs them" mentality. The church despises the city.

3. Church of the City

This church is so much like the world around that there seems little distinction. The church is indistinguishable in thinking and practice from the city.

4. Church for the City

This church is distinct from the world, but she seeks to bless the city, like the salt and light Jesus spoke about. This is what a church is for in the city.

In our study of Daniel, we learn that God's will for the Jews captured in Babylon is not to revolt, but to seek the "Shalom" (or the peace and blessing) of the land they are in (Jer 29:7). Today, Christians are exiles and aliens from Heaven in this world that is not our own. Nevertheless, we are to seek the Shalom here where we live, and love our neighbours. On this SG50 weekend, let us be reminded of the call to be the best citizens we can be, to love, to serve the poor, and most importantly, witness for our Heavenly King Jesus Christ.

Blessed SG50 Weekend!
Pastor Jason

THANK YOU FOR PRAYING FOR PASTOR EUGENE

Thank you for your continued prayers for Pastor Eugene's recovery from Guillain-Barre Syndrome. The tingling sensation and numbness in his fingers and toes have significantly diminished. There is a slight reduction in the level of muscle weakness affecting both sides of his face.

From Sister Daphne

"We are thankful to God for sustaining Eugene each step of the way. Throughout this faith journey, His grace has been truly sufficient... God is hearing and answering as you are praying. Thank you for blessing and encouraging us in so many ways while we are waiting on Him!"
