SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

Desmond & Oi Ching (Week 1)

SMCI Evangelistic Campaign 2015 (Part II)

We saw and experienced what everyone who had been to the evangelistic campaign had been saying throughout - opened doors, prepared hearts and many decisions made to trust in Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, students who were dismissed early, happily returned to their classrooms to listen to the gospel-preaching, students were able to pay attention and make decisions to trust in Christ amidst noisy surroundings and the sight of a sobbing young student upon hearing the gospel - were some real moments of how the Lord prepared the hearts of these students.

For the Lord is so real to us in every single moment! His strength and protection enables us to travel and preach for 7-10 hours each day. The power of His Holy Spirit gives us boldness to preach each time we walk into a classroom and His wisdom helps us to cope with many different opposing encounters. We are rejoiced and excited over every single surrendered heart and every victory won! With so many doors opened, we like the rest, wanted to be able to tell the good news to as many students as possible. We thank God for this wonderful provision!

"The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; and he that winneth souls is wise." Proverbs 11:30
It has been a fruitful trip for us not just in winning souls but also in our personal walk with God. The evangelistic campaign in Philippines was indeed, a great platform for us to experience God's strength, help and unfailing faithfulness in a special way, for it is a battlefield of the Lord. What an awesome experience! All glory to our Lord!
