

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

Let's Pray for Singapore!

This must be one of the hottest elections ever in Singapore!
Much has been said, and emotions run high.
But the dust has since settled.
A new government is now installed.
The people have chosen, but more importantly, God has ordained.
"For there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been instituted by God."
(Rom 13:1)

Regardless of our personal choice, we must rejoice in God's sovereign choice.
And we are thus to submit to the authorities ordained.
"Let every person be subject to the governing authorities" (Rom 13:1)

We are 1st called to be Christ-followers, above everything else, even political affiliations.
So let us live out our faith in humble submission and godly reverence.
"Pay to all what is owed to them: taxes to whom taxes are owed, revenue to whom revenue is owed, respect to whom respect is owed, honor to whom honor is owed." (Rom 13:7)

Let us continue to pray for our leaders.
There is no doubt we enter a crucial next lap after SG50, but our hope is in the Lord.
What a privilege to carry everything to Him in prayer!

May our Gospel Light shine in our nation!
"Do all things without grumbling or disputing, that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world." (Phi 2:14-15)

Blessings,
Pastor Jason
