PUNGGOL ASSIMILATION TASK FORCE (PATF)

The Punggol Dream is not just architectural, it is primarily spiritual. The building is important, but it will be meaningless without spiritual ministry by the people. As such, with the endorsement of the Board of Elders, we have commissioned the Punggol Assimilation Task Force (PATF).

The Mission of the PATF is to "lead the way for effective ministry in Punggol".

There are 4 main areas of consideration for PATF:

1. Mind-set:

To ensure the necessary mind-set (and skills) of the church for service in Punggol

- By engaging & listening to church members in areas we need to address and improve upon.
- By teaching & supporting church members with the necessary mind-set & skills. (Mind-set will be led by Brother Eugene Cheng & Pastor Seethor Chee Keen)

2. Migration:

To plan and execute logistical support for migration of church to Punggol
Issues: transport, car park, traffic flow, hospitality, sermon sharing, orientation & food service
(Migration will be led by Brother Melvyn Chia & Sister Benita Teo)

3. Ministry:

To initiate new area-specific outreach ministries in Punggol
Areas include Kindergarten & Student Clubs (for both Primary & Secondary Students).
(Ministry will be led by Pastor Robert Wong)

4. Marketing:

To inform & to connect with the people living, working and studying in Punggol. This can be via flyers, advertisements and house visits (best arrangement will be a same group of Gospeliters reaching the same area over the long term so that a certain relationship is built.)
(Marketing will be led by Brother Chua Soon Hock.)

Brother Alfred Koh is the overall coordinator for the Task Force.

Please pray for them all.

They can't do it alone. But they'll lead the way in strategizing and setting things in motion. And when you are called on to help, I hope you'll respond joyfully as God's servant in Punggol.

Let us all be servants of the Lord Jesus Christ who gave Himself for us!

Blessings
Pastor Jason
