

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

The Gospel is about Generosity

God's generosity towards sinners is seen in Him giving His only Son to die for our sins. God gave His best for the worst. He gave freely, lavishly, even painfully. That's radical generosity. This is our God!

And in the light of His generosity, we are called to generosity towards others too. Generosity to forgive those who wrong us, to serve our enemies, to give to the poor; yeah, indeed, to even give of ourselves as a living sacrifice. One cannot but be generous if he has truly experienced the Gospel.

In the next couple of weeks at our sermon time, I'd like to share more about Gospel Generosity. I feel it is important as generosity is one of the key areas that we must learn and grow in as we prepare for Punggol.

The Punggol Dream is a mission - a mission that demands generosity - that Gospeliters will be there to serve, and not be served only; to give, and not to grab; to contribute, and not only to consume. And we need to see how this generosity is not forced out of guilt or emotional blackmailing, but that it readily flows from a Gospel-centred or a Gospel-saturated life.

Imagine a church that is soaked in the Gospel and that oozes this generosity to the poor, the needy, the unreached! Ministries will not lack resources. The work of the Kingdom will advance. We will then truly be able to fulfil our mission to lead generations into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ! And God will be glorified through our deeds! Till next week, would you pray about Gospel Generosity in your own life?

Blessings
Pastor Jason
