THE BOOK OF HEBREWS

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

(Hebrews 10:24-25 ESV)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

(Hebrews 10:24-25 ESV)

CHURCH IS

TOMORROW!!

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

(Hebrews 10:24-25 ESV)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.

(Hebrews 10:24-25 ESV)

God called you to be the church, not just gather in a room and listen to a sermon.

“I've been attending CG led by Daniel and Theresa Pang. I enjoyed all of the meetings we had. We start with a dinner, and I really admire how men always let ladies go first to fill their plates.”

“That night we split into men/women groups and people shared their prayers request. And some people shared quite intimate things, and we cried together (at least, ladies did - not sure about men), and prayed for each other, and encouraged each other.”

“At the end of the meeting I felt so much closer to the ladies at CG. And I think all ladies felt so encouraged, because as we shared our issues, other ladies shared how they faced similar issues in the past, or they knew someone who struggles with similar issues currently.”

“After that CG meeting I left with an impression that people have hunger for deep, meaningful, healing conversations with other Christians about their walks in life.”

For if we go on sinning deliberately after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

(Hebrews 10:24-26 ESV)

But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

(Hebrews 10:39 ESV)

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near.
