FROM THE TABLE TO THE TOMB

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often met there with his disciples.

(John 18:1-2 ESV)

And taking with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, he began to be sorrowful and troubled. Then he said to them, “My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here, and watch with me.”

(Matthew 26:37-38 ESV)

And when he came to the place, he said to them, “Pray that you may not enter into temptation.”

(Luke 22:40 ESV)

And going a little farther he fell on his face and prayed, saying, “My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me; nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will.”

(Matthew 26:39 ESV)

And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly; and his sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

(Luke 22:44 ESV)

In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to him who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverence.

(Hebrews 5:7 ESV)

A large, glowing blue sphere is centered in the frame. The word "TEARS" is written across the sphere in a bold, black, sans-serif font. The sphere is surrounded by concentric ripples, suggesting a drop of water hitting a surface. The background is a gradient of blue, with a darker blue at the bottom and a lighter blue at the top.

(Matthew 16:24-25 ESV)

When they had preached the gospel to that city and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch, strengthening the souls of the disciples, encouraging them to continue in the faith, and saying that through many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God.

(Acts 14:21-22 ESV)
