THE BOOK OF HEBREWS

By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

(Hebrews 11:24-27 ESV)

CHOICES OF FAITH

HEB 11:24-27

1. What he Refused

By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward.

(Hebrews 11:24-26 ESV)

And he said to them,
“Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”
Immediately they left their nets and followed him...
Immediately they left the boat and their father
and followed him.

(Matthew 4:19-22 ESV)

And he said to all,
“If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself
and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

(Luke 9:23 ESV)

Lord, it's too heavy...
Please cut it down a little...

Lord, please cut it down a little more...
I'll be able to carry it better...

Lord, thank you so much...

Huh?

Let's use this as a bridge and cross over...

Ahh! it's too short I can't cross...

There are no Crownbearers in Heaven who were not Crossbearers here below.

CH Spurgeon

*I would like to buy about three dollars
worth of gospel, please.*

Not too much--just enough to make me happy, but not so much that I get addicted.

I don't want so much gospel that I learn to really hate covetousness and lust.

I certainly don't want so much that I start to love my enemies, cherish self-denial, and contemplate missionary service in some alien culture.

I want ecstasy,
not repentance;

I want transcendence,
not transformation.

I would like to be cherished by some nice, forgiving, broad-minded people, but I myself don't want to love those from different races-- especially if they smell.

I would like enough gospel to make my family secure and my children well behaved,

but not so much that I find my ambitions
redirected or my giving too greatly enlarged.

*I would like to buy about three dollars
worth of gospel, please.*

People want a cheap Christianity,
but the price won't come down.

People want a cheap Christianity,
but the price won't come down.

It's all or nothing!

And he said to all,
“If anyone would come after me, let him deny himself
and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

(Luke 9:23 ESV)

1. What he Refused

2. What he Resolved

By faith Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin. He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward. By faith he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.
