Racial & Religious Harmony Carnival at Punggol North

Last Sunday, Gospel Light Christian Church participated in the 12th Punggol North Racial and Religious Harmony Street Parade and Family Carnival. Media coverage of the event can be found at:-

We had a booth set up at the carnival. Our participation was not to promote ecumenism for sure. We do not believe that all religions are the same and that they all lead to God. We firmly believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the only way to God. Let me share then the 2 reasons for our participation:

1. Creating awareness in the community
 There were 12,000 people in the event last Sunday. Many families, especially those with young children, stopped by our booth. They were attracted to the balloon sculpting we had put up. Others were keen to find out more about the kindergarten that will be operating from our church (Eshkol Valley Kindergarten). We were able to speak to many visitors and to hand them our church flyers and tracts. Some I spoke to were excited that our church is coming to their neighbourhood!

2. Building a relationship with the stakeholders in the community
 This is an event organised by the grassroots. As we will be in Punggol for the long haul, it is important to be a good and friendly neighbour in the community. Supporting this event allows us to start a meaningful relationship that will be beneficial for future ministry.

Special thanks to
 Suh Jiuan- our Connections Executive who coordinated the entire event
 Lawrence Lim for teaching us balloon sculpting. Simon, Febri, Audrey, Rebecca & Delia- for tirelessly producing the balloon sculptures with a smile! Choo Liang, Justin and Deacon Alvin for helping with the balloons, place set-up and tracting. Derrick and Claudia for videography & photography. Many of our Gospeliters who came to support (especially Mike, Barbara, Chee Mun and Abigail from Punggol!)

It was a fun day! But more than that, we pray it will be a fruitful day for His glory!

Blessings
Pastor Jason
