

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

CHURCH CAMP FOLLOW UP

We thank God once again for a fruitful church camp. Many of you have asked if we will be having another church-wide camp next year. Let me share my thoughts.

I believe the biggest take-away from a camp like this is the desire to be better equipped to serve God and make disciples. Many of you have expressed eagerness in using (and some have already begun using) XPRESS, the evangelistic tool we were given a taste of during the camp. As such, I have written to Perimeter Church to invite them to Singapore in 2017 to train our whole church more thoroughly in XPRESS. We are planning for a weekend of evangelism training (Friday to Sunday) at our Punggol building. That way, most people will only need to take leave from work for 1 day. I'm excited to know that all of us (together with new worshippers in Punggol) can be better equipped to do the work of evangelism for God's Kingdom and glory.

Some have asked if they can use the "Life Issues" and "The Answer" booklets introduced in the camp right away. I say, "Sure!" However, if you are not so confident in doing so, then I'd encourage you to either read through the camp materials (and listen to the audio files) or join us for the full training in 2017. We look forward to an enriching equipping weekend, God willing.

As we will be settling down in Punggol next year, there will be no church-wide camp, but I'm sure many of you will have camps in your CGs or fellowship groups.

Let's be a church that is focused on making mature and equipped followers of Jesus Christ! This is our main business.

God bless
Pastor Jason
