

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

Welcome! We are so glad you can join us this Christmas morning to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ, God's Son. Since the world began, man has sinned against God. We rebel against Him. We run from Him. We avoid Him. We indulge in our sinful lusts. Our hearts are wicked and twisted. We are not what we were created to be. The Bible calls us sinners.

But Christmas is a message of forgiveness, salvation and hope. You see, God has not given up on man even after we sin. He sees our helplessness and in His amazing grace and goodness, He works out the only way of salvation for us. He told the world for thousands of years that He will send a Saviour to defeat the Devil who tempted man to sin. This Saviour will then be the source of blessing to all people. He will bring about reconciliation between God and man. He will rescue man from sin and Hell. He will give them a heavenly home, and He will be their good and great king forevermore.

And this Saviour is none other than God's Son. Jesus was born as man some 2000 years ago. He became man in order to die for man. He gave His life on the cross. He became our substitute by suffering and paying for the sins we deserve. His sacrifice made it possible for God to forgive us. By Jesus' sufferings, we can be saved! We can now have forgiveness of sins and reconciliation with God!

Christmas is then a gift from God. And we pray that you will receive this gift! How does one receive this gift? The Bible calls you to repent (turn from your sins) and believe in Jesus Christ. The Bible says anyone can receive. You neither work for it nor deserve it. It is given to all who will humble themselves before God.

May you have a truly blessed Christmas today. May Jesus be received into your hearts!

God Bless
Pastor Jason
