When looking for Mao Shan Wang, look for all the five features altogether in a single durian. Other durians may have one or two of these features but not all five together.

For many will come in my name, saying,

THE DREAM EXPLAINED

Daniel 2

Daniel begged for time to interpret the dream, then he and his friends prayed to God. That night the mystery was revealed to him. The next day, he explained it foretold the future.

"You saw a terrible and massive statue standing before you. Its head was made of shining gold, its chest and arms of silver, its waist and hips of bronze, its legs of iron, and its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. While you watched, a great stone fell, smashing into its feet and shattering them. Then the whole statue crumbled, disappearing into dust borne away by the wind. But the stone grew into a mountain that covered the whole earth."

"This is what it means. The mighty kingdom of Babylon is the gold head, and the other parts of the statue are empires yet to come. There will be another empire, then another, which will rule the whole earth. Then yet another empire will emerge, as strong as iron, crushing all the earlier ones. Yet it will be broken for the feet were made of iron and of clay. But God will establish another kingdom which will never be conquered, and which will destroy all those before it. God's kingdom will never end. So the stone that will become a mountain."

The impressed king declared that Daniel's God truly was the most and greatest, and he made Daniel his chief advisor.

The Great Image in Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

The great image that God revealed to Nebuchadnezzar in a dream was interpreted by the prophet Daniel. Each section represents a world-ruling superpower. Each succeeding metal is less valuable, but each succeeding metal is stronger, as each empire was more powerful than the last.

Gold—Head

This section represented the empire of Babylon, of which Nebuchadnezzar was king.

Silver—Chest and Arms

The silver chest with two arms signified the empire of the Medes and Persians, which conquered and supplanted Babylon.

Bronze—Belly and Thighs

This section represented the Greco-Macedonian Empire of Alexander the Great, which swallowed up Persia.

Iron—Legs

The two legs of iron represented the Roman Empire. After Alexander's death, his Hellenistic empire continued in a divided form until its divisions were taken over by Rome. The two legs apparently signified the east-west division that characterized the Late Roman Empire.

Iron & Clay—Feet and Toes

Extending from the legs are feet and toes of iron mixed with clay—a brittle and unstable mixture because it would not bond well. These represent the final phase of the Roman Empire, which will be made up of ten kings: some strong and some weak.

The Final Superpower: The Kingdom of God

"And in the days of these kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed ... You saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold ... The dream is certain, and its interpretation is sure." —Daniel 2:44-45

Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying,
“The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ,
and he shall reign forever and ever.”
