“Son, your sins are forgiven.”

“I say to you, rise, pick up your bed,
and go home.”

“They would hand me money in envelopes without telling me who it came from. They only said that if I have any problems, they will help me,”

“I finally felt my burdens being lifted off my shoulders. I saw a glimmer of hope.”

“At that point, I did not have a religion, and I was not a Christian. But I saw the volunteers’ genuine love and care for me. Even though I can never repay their kindness, they did not mind and they continued to help.”

“Every week, they bring me to church to listen to their pastor’s sermons. I learnt about about the Bible, God and His grace. I have been attending church for about a year or so and I feel so much more at peace than before.”

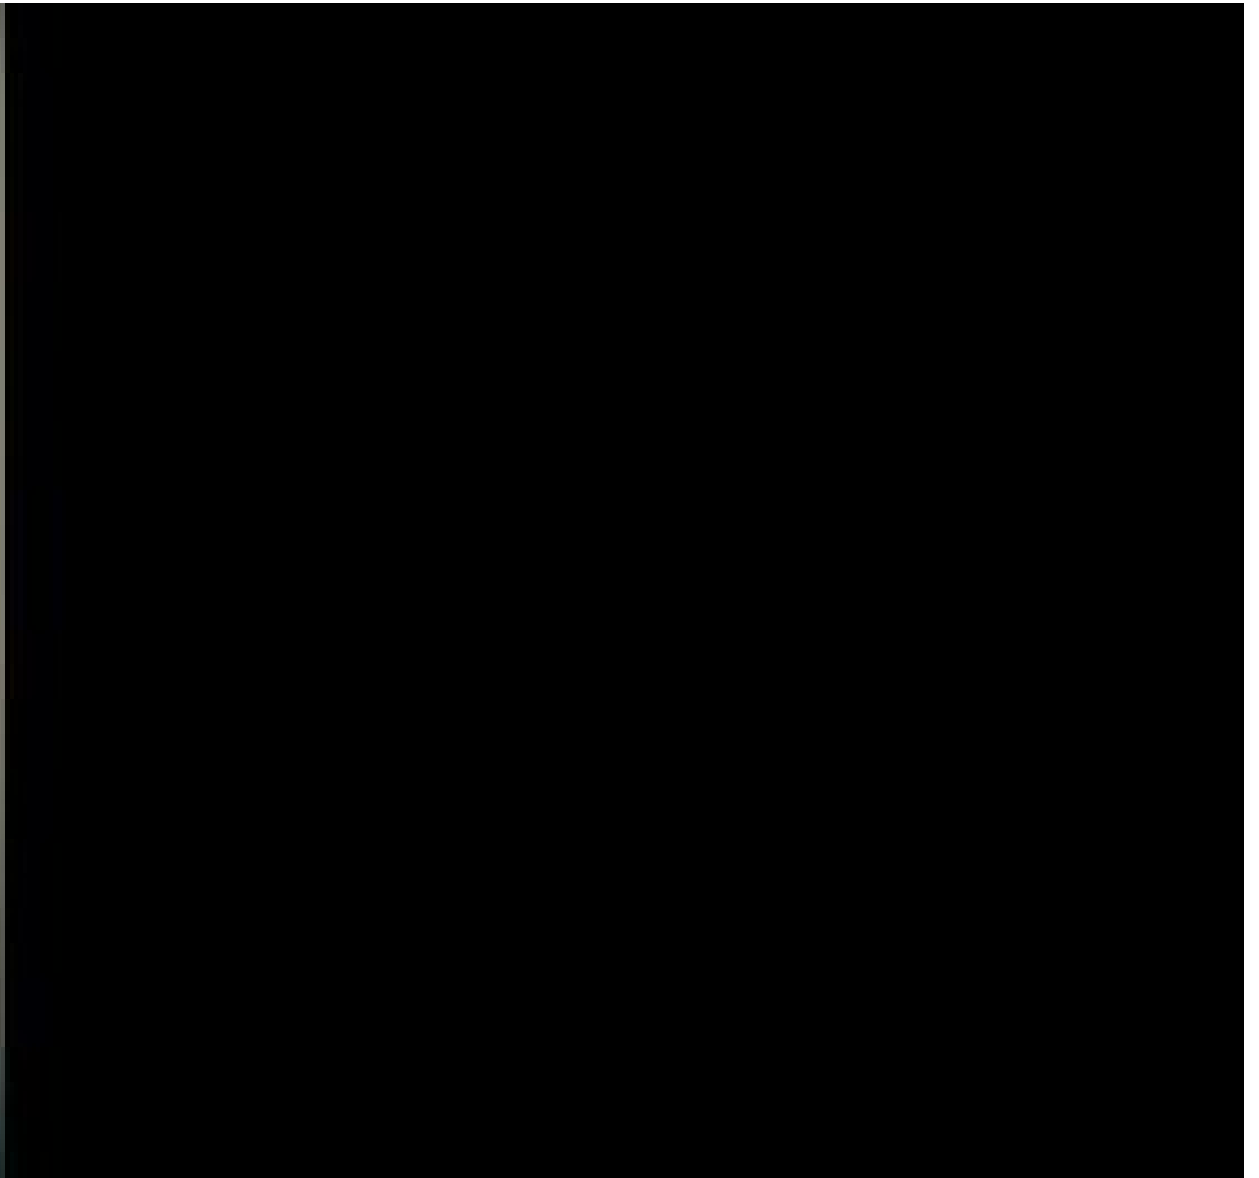

“You can see that he has a certain joy and a certain peace. It’s pretty amazing that he wakes up daily, knowing that life is not long, but we rarely hear him complaining to us,”

“There is always an effort to be happy.”

“He worries less & is more at peace...

He really appreciates the Bible and Christian literature, and enjoys hearing the preaching of God’s word. He regularly quotes scripture to remind himself of God’s word...

He believes God has His purpose for his sufferings... and though He may not take it away, He will grant strength to cope...”

“When I feel really helpless and when I don’t know what to do, I remember the words of Jesus in Matthew 9:9-13. He said that it is not the healthy who needs a doctor, but the sick. He has come not to call the righteous, but the sinners.”

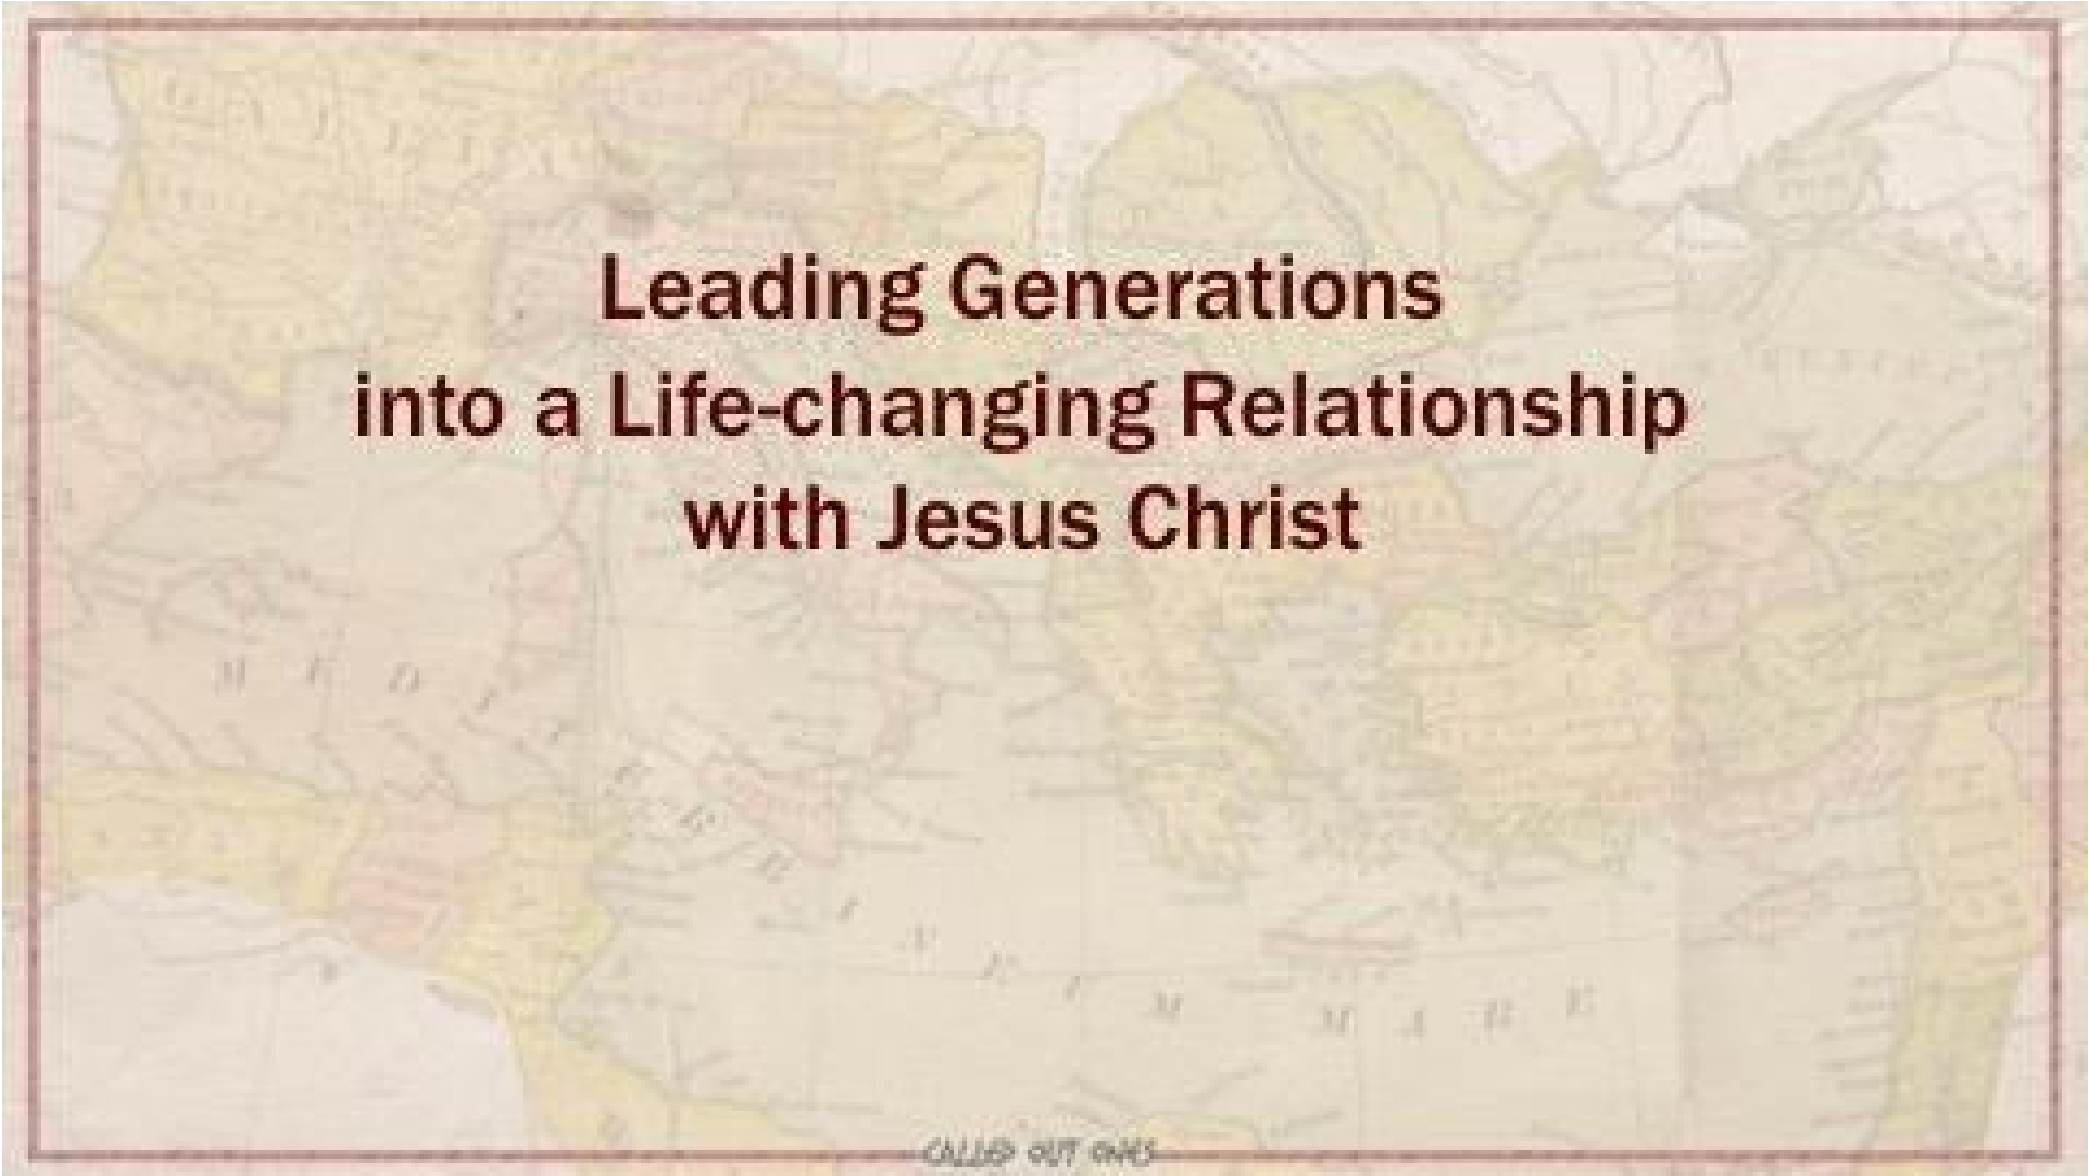

“I know that Jesus will sit at the same table with me, He will never look down on me and He will use His divine power to strengthen me.”

Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold,
I am with you always, to the end of the age.
