JEREMIAH IS CALLED

Jeremiah 1

One of the greatest prophets of the Lord was Jeremiah. He was chosen by God to pass on His messages to the king and people of Judah in a very difficult time. When Jeremiah heard God speak to him, he thought he was far too young and inexperienced to be a prophet. But God said, "Do not worry, I will be with you, and I will put My words into your mouth."

God wanted to warn His people that a great enemy would come upon them. He showed Jeremiah a large cooking pot over a blazing fire. As Jeremiah watched, the liquid in the pot began to boil, spilling over in a huge rush of steaming liquid.

"It just will not only with an enemy from the north will sweep over the lands of Judah and Jerusalem and destroy all that lies in its path," warned God. "So when I warn the people so that they turn from their wicked ways, back to My laws, for only then will they be saved."

The people didn't like listening to what Jeremiah had to say. They didn't want to have to obey God's laws to be blessed by him, and so Jeremiah became extremely unpopular! But still he passed on God's messages.

The first thing that accounts for God's using D. L. Moody so mightily was that he was a fully surrendered man. Every ounce of that two-hundred-and-eighty -pound body of his belonged to God; everything he was and everything he had, belonged wholly to God.

RA Torrey

He belonged wholly, unreservedly, unqualifiedly, entirely, to God.

There are thousands and tens of thousands of men and women in Christian work, brilliant men and women, rarely gifted men and women, men and women who are making great sacrifices, men and women who have put all conscious sin out of their lives, yet who, nevertheless, have stopped short of absolute surrender to God, and therefore have stopped short of fullness of power.

But Mr. Moody did not stop short of absolute surrender to God; he was a wholly surrendered man, and if you and I are to be used, you and I must be wholly surrendered men and women.
