SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

STUDENT MOVEMENT FOR CHRIST INTERNATIONAL

"When we take a step of faith, God always meets us at that step of faith." That was the reminder and challenge by Pastor Mike on Week 5 of the SMCI Evangelistic Campaign 2016. Having missed out on the previous campaigns, I was determined to witness the work that Gospel Light has been supporting for so many years.

From the pre-trip preparation to the end of the trip, I saw the Lord's hand at work. There were certainly setbacks that discouraged us, but throughout the trip, we believed our Lord is sovereign to deliver us out of difficult circumstances. We moved from school to school, classroom to classroom, corridor to corridor, to share the good news of Jesus Christ (the Gospel). We reached a large spectrum of students ranging from children in our primary school equivalent to young adults in tertiary education. Some of us (including myself) had the privilege to preach at gospel rally sessions during the school morning assembly. Though apprehensive at first, I was glad that I had taken that step of faith to do so.

We were not there to give sermons. Our task was to give a concise and accurate delivery of the Gospel. Many we encountered were still in the trap of trying to do good deeds to earn their way to heaven. Though the Bible was not new to them, many have not heard the authentic Gospel. As such, most of the students listened attentively, and were very enthusiastic in their responses when I engaged them.

I strongly encourage you to witness the work that we, as a church, support. You may not feel adequately equipped, but if you have a willing heart, our Lord can use you. Even if you are not able to go, you can still take some time to pray for our brethren who are going and for the people there. Though Paul planted and Apollos watered, it is God who ultimately gave the increase (1Cor 3:6). This battle has to be first fought on our knees.

In His love,
Joshua Chong
