

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

BAPTISM TESTIMONY OF BROTHER KENNETH KOH YUAN ZHE

Many of us were impetuous and flippant in our younger days. We take strong positions or make bold proclamations that we sometimes regret later in life.

I was no different, and once proclaimed that I could be a member of any religion, but NEVER Christianity!

Well, on January 15 2017, I made a complete U-turn, but it has been one without any regrets.

The change I saw in my mother's life was the chief reason behind my decision to accept Christ as my Saviour. She was uptight, hot-tempered and aggressive. But after turning to Christ two years ago, she has transformed into a joyful and peace-loving individual.

It was stunning. I saw how she cared for my father as he slipped further into the unforgiving jaws of dementia, and was moved by her actions.

This life transformation must have come from the great power of God himself.

Four months have passed since I accepted the Lord into my life. My belief in Him has brought me great insights into life's greatest mysteries and issues. The Lord has blessed my family and I wonderfully – not in material riches or superb health – but in giving us a peace and joy that we never felt before.

I felt, for once in my life, that my heart was at ease. It was a powerful clarity to life that I never had.

When I prayed, God gave me answers. God didn't always answer 'Yes' to my prayers – but He always gave me the truth. I understood then that the power of God was life-transforming not because He gives whatever we want, but because He gives us what we need.

As I grew in my Christian walk, I saw myself being more disciplined, polite, grateful and appreciative of everything that I had. While I still struggle with sin, I'm sinning less and less with each passing day.

I am grateful to God for His divine leadership in my life. I am grateful that He has led me to Gospel Light, to officially begin my walk in the Christian faith. I am grateful for His guidance in my times of need.

Thank you Lord!

I'm ready to walk with You and Jesus for the rest of my life.

Blessings,
Kenneth Koh
