Meekness is Gentleness (calmness/patience/forbearance)

KING'S SPEECH

Meekness is Gentleness (calmness/patience/forbearance)
as a result of surrender to and trust in God.

SPEECH

Meekness toward God is that disposition of spirit in which we accept His dealings with us as good.

In the Old Testament, the meek are those wholly relying on God rather than their own strength to defend them against injustice.

Gentleness or meekness is the opposite to self-assertiveness and self-interest. It stems from trust in God's goodness and control over the situation. The gentle person is not occupied with self at all.

Meekness is Gentleness (calmness/patience/forbearance)
as a result of surrender to and trust in God.

Meekness is not weakness

and he who rules his spirit than he who takes a city

A man without self-control is like a city broken into and left without walls.

The wicked flee when no one pursues,
but the righteous are bold as a lion.

(Pro 28:1 ESV)

SPEECH

Meekness is not weakness, but meekness does not use its power for its own defense or selfish purposes. Meekness is controlled strength or power completely surrendered to God's control. It is an attitude of heart in which all energies are brought into the perfect control of the Holy Spirit.

The meek man is not a human mouse afflicted with a sense of his own inferiority. Rather he may be in his moral life as bold as a lion and as strong as Samson; but he has stopped being fooled about himself. He has accepted God's estimate of his own life.

He knows he is as weak and helpless as God declared him to be, but paradoxically, he knows at the same time that he is in the sight of God of more importance than angels. In himself, nothing; in God, everything. That is his motto.

The common assumption is that when a man is meek it is because he cannot help himself; but the Lord was 'meek' because he had the infinite resources of God at His command... meekness is the opposite to self-assertiveness and self-interest

Jesus kept entrusting Himself to Him Who judges righteously

let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty
of a gentle and quiet spirit,
which in God's sight is very precious.

(1Pet 3:4 ESV)

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace,

as having nothing, yet possessing everything.

(2Cor 6:10 ESV)

Blessed are the gentle, those who are ready to be thought nothing of. They are lowly-minded, and are ready to give up their portion in the earth; therefore it shall come back to them.

They neither boast, nor contend, nor exult over others, yet are they heirs of all the good which God has created on the face of the earth.

Blessed are the meek,
for they shall inherit the earth.

(Mat 5:5 ESV)

SPEECH

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me,
for I am gentle and lowly in heart

(Mat 11:29 ESV)

Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me,
for I am gentle and lowly in heart
and you will find rest for your souls.

(Mat 11:29 ESV)

Jesus calls us to his rest, and meekness is His method. The meek man cares not at all who is greater than he, for he has long ago decided that the esteem of the world is not worth the effort.
