O the bliss of the man who gets right inside other people until he can see with their eyes, think with their thoughts, feel with their feelings, for he who does that will find others do the same for him and will know that that is what God in Jesus Christ has done.

Thomas Manton

The world reckons those are blessed who are free of outside troubles to attend to their own peace. But Christ here says they are blessed who are not only prepared to put up with their own troubles, but also to take on other people's - to help them in distress. To freely join them in their time of trial and, as it were, to get right into their situation that they may gladly expend themselves in their assistance.

John Calvin

God is the grand master of mercy.
His very nature desires to relieve us of the self-imposed misery
and distress we experience
because of our sin.

But God, being rich in mercy,
because of the great love with which he loved us,
even when we were dead in our trespasses,
made us alive together with Christ...

(Eph 2:4,5 ESV)

Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

SPEECH

But love your enemies,
and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return,
and your reward will be great,
and you will be sons of the Most High,
for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.
Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

(Luk 6:35,36 ESV)

But love your enemies,

and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return,

“To be a Christian means to forgive
the inexcusable, because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you.”

Corrie Ten Boom

His hand was thrust out to shake mine. And I, who had preached so often to the people of the need to forgive, kept my hand at my side.

Even as the angry, vengeful thoughts boiled through me,
I saw the sin of them...
“Lord Jesus,” I prayed, “forgive me
and help me to forgive him.”

I tried to smile, I struggled to raise my hand. I could not.
I felt nothing, not the slightest spark of warmth or charity.

And so again
I breathed a silent prayer.
"Jesus, I cannot forgive him.
Give me Your forgiveness."

As I took his hand the most incredible thing happened.
From my shoulder along my arm
and through my hand a current seemed to pass from me to him,
while into my heart sprang
a love for this stranger that almost overwhelmed me.

And so I discovered that it is not on our forgiveness any more than on our goodness that the world's healing hinges, but on His. When He tells us to love our enemies, He gives, along with the command, the love itself.

But love your enemies.

and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return,
and your reward will be great,
and you will be sons of the Most High,

Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.

(Luk 6:35,36 ESV)

We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. Whoever does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

(1Jo 3:14,15 ESV)

But love your enemies,
and do good, and lend, expecting nothing in return,
and your reward will be great,
and you will be sons of the Most High,
for he is kind to the ungrateful and the evil.
Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful.
