Evangelism is not salesmanship.
It is not... pressing them, coercing them,
overwhelming them, or subduing them.
Evangelism is telling a message.
Evangelism is reporting good news.

“Who can deny that much modern evangelism has become emotionally manipulative, seeking only a momentary decision of the sinner’s will yet neglecting the biblical idea that conversion is the result of the supernatural, gracious act of God toward the sinner?”

Mark Dever

'Evangelize' ...
does not mean to win converts...
but simply to announce the good news,
irrespective of the results.

“We don’t fail in our evangelism if we faithfully present the gospel and yet the person is not converted; we fail only if we don’t faithfully present the gospel at all.”

Mark Dever

“When you understand that evangelism isn’t converting people, but that it is telling them the wonderful truth about God, the great news about Jesus Christ, then obedience to the call to evangelize can become certain and joyful.”

Mark Dever

People who witness cannot fail.
The very act of bearing witness is success!

“Who should Evangelize?”

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, to the end of the age."

(Mat 28:18-20 ESV)

And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word.

(Acts 8:4 ESV)

And there arose on that day a great persecution against the church in Jerusalem, and they were all scattered throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles...

Now those who were scattered went about preaching the word.

(Acts 8:4 ESV)
