THE KING'S SPEECH

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal,
but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven,
where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

(Jesus, in Mat 6:19-20)

Sell your possessions, and give to the needy.
Provide yourselves with moneybags that do not grow old,

where no thief approaches and no moth destroys.

But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled,
the lame, the blind, and you will be blessed,

For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the just.

And I tell you, make friends for yourselves

ROSSESSIONS

THE KING'S SPEECH

As for the rich in this present age, charge them not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, thus storing up treasure for themselves as a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is truly life.
