

SHINE SUNDAY BULLETIN

REUNION 2018 (团圆)

On 24 February, more than 200 people attended a Chinese New Year outreach dinner (团圆) organised by the Community Engagement ministry team.

Hosted by the ministry's leaders and Care Group leaders, the dinner kicked off with a Christian "Lo Hei". Our guests, who occupied a total of 10 tables, enjoyed the Lo Hei and had lots of fun.

After dinner, Ivan and the drama team creatively used a skit which incorporated Mandarin, as well as Hokkien and Cantonese, to bring the message of God's love through the Chinese character 祥. The story was about an aging father who wanted to give his 3 daughters the most precious Chinese New Year gift of all: the knowledge that God (祢) gave Jesus as a sacrificial lamb (羊) to die for them.

The Bright Hill Home Visitation team together with our young adults also brought 10 seniors on wheelchairs to celebrate 团圆 with us. It brought much joy to these lonely folk when our young adults as well as members talked to them and listened to their stories. Some of the young adults have since been inspired to join the church's visitation team to spend time with these seniors on the fourth Sunday of each month. Praise God for raising the young to minister to these seniors.
