2 Ways to God

THE BIBLE
TEACHES US

to keep our body and soul clean,
so we can better serve God.
It's important to remember that we are not perfect. Just like the early church was full of people known as the tax collector and one of the worst sinners,

the resurrected Jesus chose to spend time with them.

Jesus said, "I came not to call the righteous, but sinners."
He wanted the lost ones to come to him. And Jesus is still the same today. He wants us to be what he calls "the lost ones".

He wants us to come to him
and let him help us.

He wants us to be the lost ones.

But if it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works;
otherwise grace would no longer be grace. (Rom 11:6)

The new wine of the Gospel cannot mix with legalism.

The only accepted way to God is a humble dependence on the Gospel of grace, without the deeds of the law.

I wanted to acknowledge that

I am a Christian, but the Scripture says that the tax collectors was also a sinner. So I thought it would be appropriate to give to the church. And [REDACTED] is a

Why then did God give the Law and Ceremonies?

Galatians 3:21–22

For if a law had been given that could give life, then righteousness would indeed be by the law. But the Scripture imprisoned everything under sin, so that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

 Stories

With my condition, life can be very difficult, as it is just like waiting to die.

However, when I feel really helpless and when I don't know what to do, I remember the words of Jesus in Matthew 9:9-13.

He said that it is not the healthy who needs a doctor, but the sick. He has come not to call the righteous, but the sinners.

I know that Jesus will sit at the same table
with me, He will never look down on me...

"You can see that he has a certain joy and a certain peace. It's pretty amazing that he wakes up daily, knowing that life is not long, but we rarely hear him complaining to us. There is always an effort to be happy."
