Matthew 10:9–11

Acquire no gold or silver or copper for your belts, no bag for your journey, or two tunics or sandals or a staff, for the laborer deserves his food. And whatever town or village you enter, find out who is worthy in it and stay there until you depart.

APOSTLES

Matthew 10:41

The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous person will receive a righteous person's reward.

APOSTLES

3 John 5–8

Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are...
You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

APOSTLES

3 John 5–8

Beloved, it is a faithful thing you do in all your efforts for these brothers, strangers as they are... You will do well to send them on their journey in a manner worthy of God. For they have gone out for the sake of the name, accepting nothing from the Gentiles. Therefore we ought to support people like these, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'

The Forgotten Command

A photograph of a forest floor. In the foreground, a large, fallen log lies horizontally across the frame. The ground is covered with green ferns and other low-lying vegetation. In the background, numerous tall, thin tree trunks rise vertically, creating a dense forest. The lighting is soft, suggesting a shaded forest environment.

For through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God
