REJECTION

of the king

REJECTION is a wound everyone faces and it often hurts more than we expected.

But the greatest REJECTION of all took place when the greatest gift, given in the greatest love to the least deserving was REJECTED.

This is what happened when Jesus faced REJECTION by the very people He came to save.

This is the REJECTION of the King.
