

WEEKLY BULLETIN

gospellight.sg

11 & 12 August 2018

"For Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, not in cleverness of speech, so that the cross of Christ would not be made void. For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God."

- 1 Corinthians 1:17-18

The annual Student Movement for Christ (SMCI) Evangelistic campaign involves declaring the gospel to thousands of students in campuses across the Philippines. This year, an international team had the privilege of sharing the gospel to over 172,000 people over 5 weeks in late June and July. Thank God for opening doors.

Every believer is commanded to be a gospel messenger and the wonderful fact is when God calls us to a task, He also empowers us to complete it. He doesn't just work through us but within us as well.

Some of the people we shared the gospel with grew up in churches or attended services regularly. They knew the gospel in their heads and did everything a "believer" would do. Yet their hearts were unchanged, and they thought that doing these things meant that they had a relationship with God (Ephesians 2:8-9/John 3:16/Titus 3:3-5). Our main message to these "believers" is that the beauty of the gospel is not that we are inviting or "earning" Jesus into our lives. It did not start with us but Jesus, who died for our sins and was resurrected. He graciously invites us into a relationship with Him.

We also experienced many miracles, such as how a single rain cloud formed to cover only the space we were preaching in, and then disappeared after the sermon. Lost items were found miraculously as well. If you want to know more, just ask any E-camper. When we take steps of faith, God meets us there and it will leave us breathless.

My encouragement for GLCC is for us to start being mission-minded with the gospel, not just across countries but across doors, tables, bus seats, and even to people in church. We are saved not to sit on our blessed assurance but to share and plead with souls to trust in Jesus. The harvest is truly plentiful but the laborers are few. Pray for the Lord of the Harvest to prepare you and send you.

Join us for E-camp in 2019, come be a part of His regenerative work in your life and others.

By His Grace,
Giolo De Jesus

EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY

By Brother Jerry and Brother Glenn

Topic: Acts 27

Tuesday 14 August | 8pm

Light 2 Auditorium | Level 3

In Acts 27, Paul is taken as a prisoner to Rome by sea to stand trial before Caesar. The author Luke was with Paul on this voyage as they sailed against the wind to Crete. They then sailed against Paul's advice to Malta and met with a shipwreck. In this chapter, we see God's wonderful grace, extended to his faithful servant Paul. God was in control despite the dangerous conditions and He saved the lives of Paul and the others who traveled with him on this voyage.
