Dear Pastor Jason,

I have been generally appreciated of your teaching of Scripture where you have taken the extra effort to enlighten on passages of Scripture that may have been especially difficult to hear...

However, I had difficulty in how you interpreted the passage from Matt 12:1-13 last week...

My difficulty is with the omission with the most likely reason for the 'blindness' of the Pharisees.

REJECTION

Dear Pastor Jason,

I take my text from Matthew 15:7-9,
'These people honor me with their lips,
but their hearts are far from me...

There is a tendency for us often to focus on the problem of the Pharisees as an intellectual one. I don't think their problem is that when I read Jesus' teaching about the nature of their hearts.

Hi _____,

thanks for your email.

I agree with you that the "heart of the matter is a matter of the heart."

Clearly, the Pharisees' (and our) problem is not intellectual, but spiritual

The blasphemy against the Spirit is because of a calloused heart-and I alluded to v34 which is about the heart.

We will be looking exactly at the "sinful heart" this coming Sunday.
