At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. (Mat 12:1)

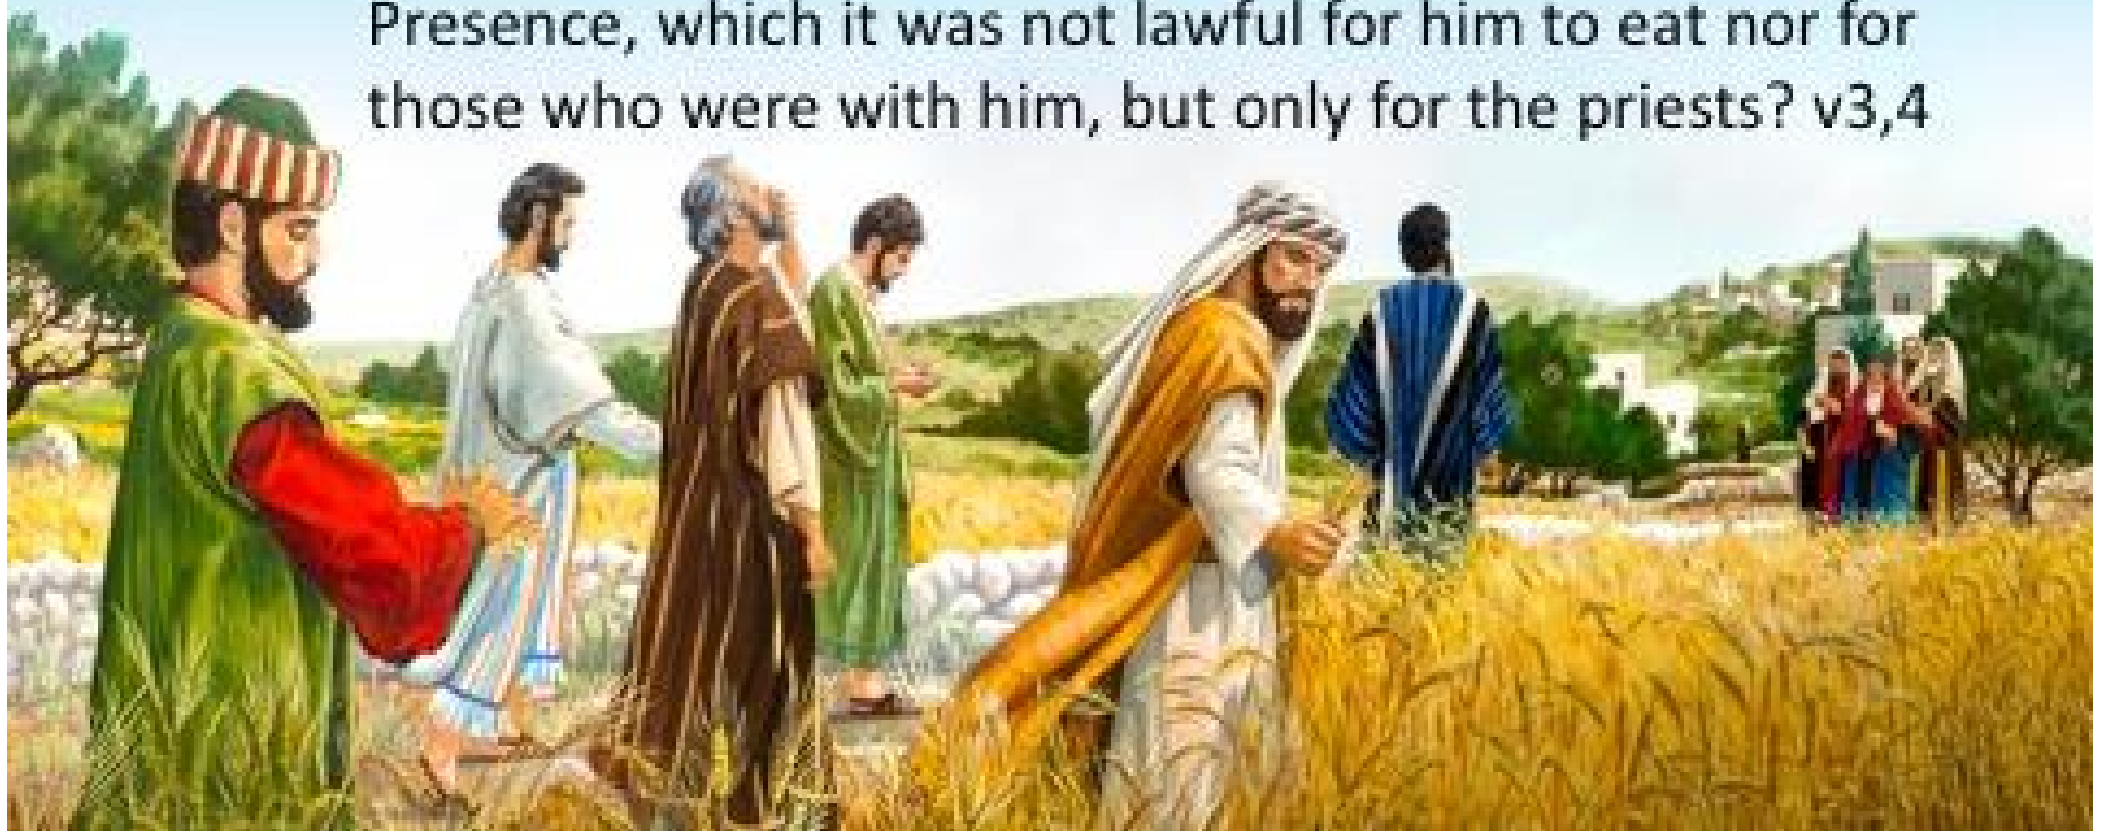

At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry, and they began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. (Mat 12:1)

But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to him, “Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.” v2

He said to them, "Have you not read what David did when he was hungry, and those who were with him: how he entered the house of God and ate the bread of the Presence, which it was not lawful for him to eat nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests? v3,4

Or have you not read in the Law
how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple
profane the Sabbath and are guiltless? v5

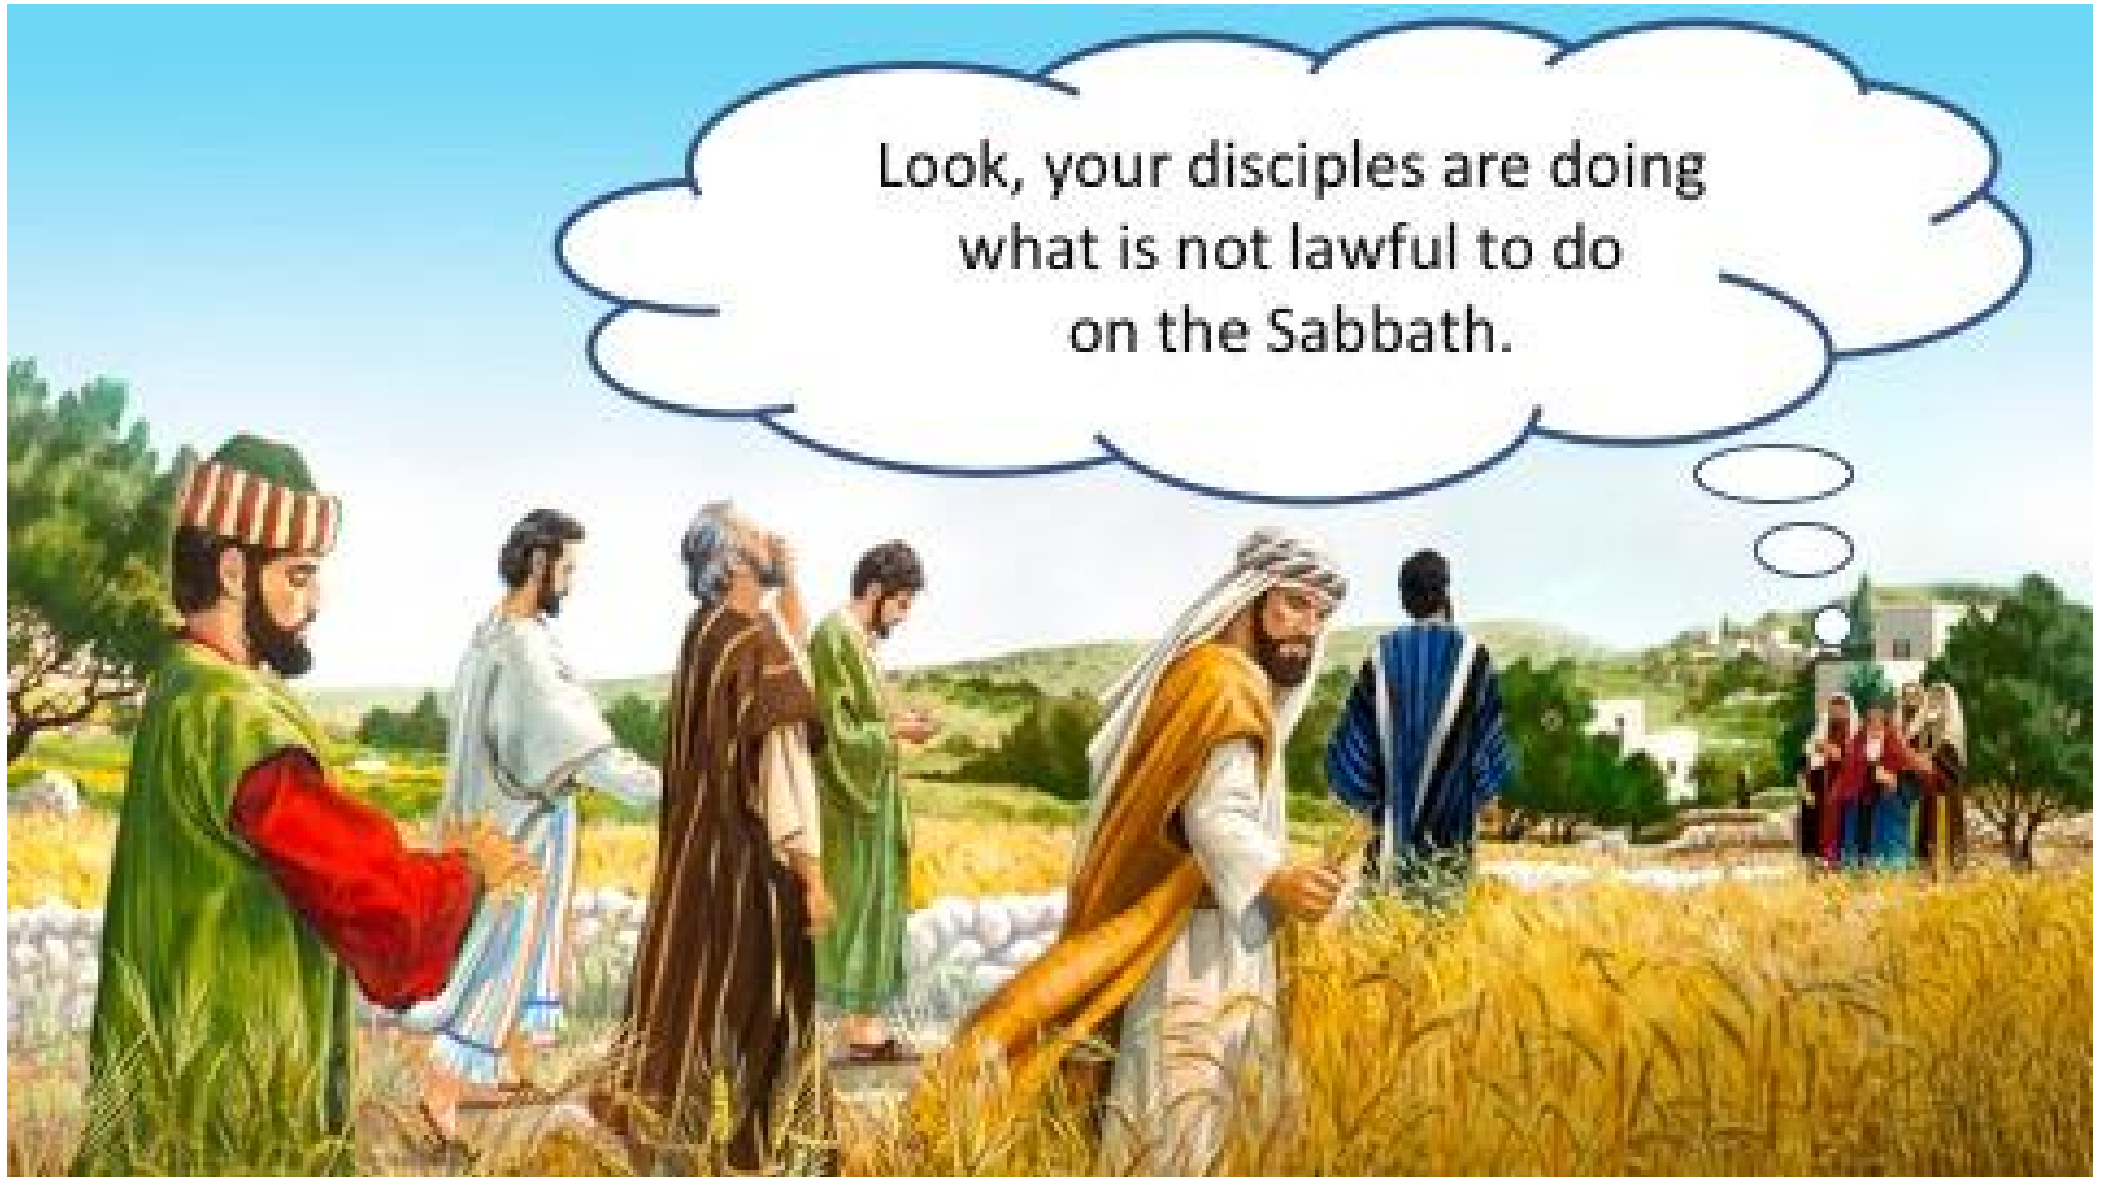

Or have you not read in the Law
how on the Sabbath the priests in the temple
profane the Sabbath and are guiltless?
I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. v5,6

Look, your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.

Remember David
Remember the priests

*Remember David
Remember the priests
They "break" the law but are blameless*

The Law is not what we woodenly apply.

*The Law is not what we woodenly apply.
One may, at times, break it & remain blameless.*

*The Law is not what we woodenly apply.
One may, at times, break it & remain blameless.
Grasp the intent & not just the letter of the Law.*

And if you had known what this means,
'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,'
you would not have condemned the guiltless. v7

Hosea 6:6

For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice,
the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Mark 2:27

And he said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."

For the Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath. v8

He went on from there and entered their synagogue.
And a man was there with a withered hand. v9

And they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?" —
so that they might accuse him. v10

He said to them, "Which one of you who has a sheep, if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? v11

Of how much more value is a man than a sheep!
So it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.” v12

Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." And the man stretched it out, and it was restored, healthy like the other. v13

But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him, how to destroy him. v14

For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil .

No premarital sex, no adultery, no sodomy, no masturbation... it all leads me to one inescapable conclusion: God is such a killjoy.
