

Home Fix

An illustration of a man in a light blue shirt and tan pants standing in a hallway. The hallway has a green wall on the left with several framed pictures. The floor is dark wood. The man is looking towards the right.

Every family needs to be a small picture of the gospel of Jesus. Starting at home, the impact of the gospel should be felt the most. Sadly, the grip of sin has broken our homes, our marriages, and our relationships. We need to remember and return the centrality of the gospel to our homes.

Join us for our new sermon series to be encouraged and equipped in our roles. Whether you're a parent, married or single, the gospel is key to a Home Fix.
