Marriage is where I become the Real Deal...

Marriage is where I become the Real Deal...

1. Because I see my Sinfulness

One of the best wedding gifts God gave you was a full-length mirror called your spouse.

Had there been a card attached, it would have said, “Here’s to helping you discover what you’re really like!”

Marriage is the merciless revealer,
the great white searchlight
turned on the darkest places of human nature

We are like tea bags.
We can't tell how sinful we are
until we are put into the hot water of marriage.

Like a bridge,
the weaknesses in our lives are shown up
when the weight of marriage goes over it.

“They dream in courtship, but in wedlock wake”

Alexander Pope

“If we love a human being and do not love God,
we demand of him every perfection and every rectitude,
& when we do not get it we become cruel & vindictive;

“If we love a human being and do not love God,
we demand of him every perfection and every rectitude,
& when we do not get it we become cruel & vindictive;
we are demanding of a human being
that which he or she cannot give.

“If we love a human being and do not love God,
we demand of him every perfection and every rectitude,
& when we do not get it we become cruel & vindictive;
we are demanding of a human being
that which he or she cannot give.

There is only one Being Who can satisfy
the last aching abyss of the human heart,
and that is the Lord Jesus Christ.”

Oswald Chambers

The Priority in Marriage

where I can become the Real Deal!

A man in a light blue shirt and grey pants stands in a hallway, looking thoughtful. The hallway has a green carpet and framed pictures on the wall.

“There were countless times I wondered to myself what I’ve gotten myself into, and thought that we were way too different in our upbringings, cultures, preferences, and values.”

*But... I clung on to the hope that this was and is God's perfect plan for our lives, and this marriage is the instrument He is using
to shape us to be more like His son."*
