For the moment all discipline seems painful rather than pleasant, but later it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

1 Samuel 3:13

And I declare to him that I am about to punish his house forever, for the iniquity that he knew, because his sons were blaspheming God, and he did not restrain them.

The parent who studies to subdue (self-will) in his child works together with God in the renewing and saving a soul. The parent who indulges it does the devil's work, makes religion impracticable, salvation unattainable, and does all that in him lies to damn his child, soul and body forever."

Deuteronomy 6:6–7

And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

IF WE DON'T TEACH
OUR CHILDREN WHO GOD IS,
SOMEONE ELSE
WILL TEACH THEM
EVERYTHING THAT HE ISN'T

4. Make sure the parents are obsessed with success in our world

Ephesians 6:4

Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

I want to spend time with my kids,
teach them the Bible, take them to church,
laugh with them, cry with them,
discipline them when they disobey,
say sorry when I mess up, and pray like crazy.
I want them to look back and think, “I’m not sure what my parents were doing or if they even knew what they were doing.
But I always knew my parents loved me and I knew they loved Jesus.”
Maybe it’s not that complicated after all.
