

BEHOLD YOUR KING

BEHOLD YOUR KING

A nation longed for deliverance, a king to free them from their captors. But they didn't expect He would arrive as a defenseless child. Kings are called "Your Highness" but His name would simply be "Jesus", because He would save His people from their sin. Parades and parties are given to coronate kings, but He would be anointed in muddy river waters.

Armies fight for their kings, but He would face the Devil alone in the wilderness and ascend to greatness. Speeches are filled with the promise of prosperity, but His speech would say that to be first is to be last. Kings are worshipped for their titles, but He would prove His authority as demons and disease bowed to His will.

Let's worship a king unlike any other, Jesus.
