

"The biggest blessings from serving in the Children's Ministry is the opportunity to share the gospel with the children and witness the hearts that fellow teachers have for the children."

SERVING WHERE THE SON ALWAYS SHINES

The two most important goals I have in serving the children is to teach truth, and to help them understand what it means to love God and to love others. I hope the children will benefit through the lessons and discussions, in realizing how much God loves them and how much they need Jesus in their lives.

I am always in awe of things that the children know: the details they remember of a particular story, and the way they interpret Bible stories. There are times where they will ask rather specific questions about Bible verses and common words, such as "born again" and "repentance". This reminds me that a child is never too young to be told or taught the gospel and the things of the Lord, and that God can work in their hearts whenever and wherever, using His Word or His people. It is especially heart-warming when they share prayer requests and we all pray together.

I continue to praise God for bringing children to us, and remember Who and why I serve. I serve the Lord our God and I seek to serve Him because of His love for me and the great things He has done for me. I remember the many times I was also ungrateful for and unmoved by God's blessings in my life, especially the gospel; yet, He continued to call me back to Him. In the same way, I can only remain steadfast in prayer, asking God to move in the children's hearts, that they may one day believe in the gospel and repent from their sins.

The biggest blessings from serving in the Children's Ministry is the opportunity to share the gospel with the children and witness the hearts that fellow teachers have for the children. It is so assuring when the children ask about salvation, because I know that it is the work of God and only He can draw His people close to Him.

Join us to make a difference in these young lives for the sake of the gospel.

Blessings,
Natalie
