DAVID HELM WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY GAIL SCHOONMAKER

They cried because they still longed for God's forever king to come.

What a very big day!

What God had promised to Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and David had arrived in the birth of Jesus!

And news of his great arrival was about to spread.
