

SHINEKIDZ UPDATES

ShineKidz, an after-school care centre, was the product of the church leadership's vision of wanting our new building to serve the needs of young families living in the vicinity, after we moved to Punggol in 2016.

In 2017, Pastor Robert Wong anchored ShineKidz with 2 full-time staff and an initial enrolment of 15 students. Most students were placed with us because the centres in their schools were over-subscribed. Our enrolment hovered between 15 to 20-plus students until recently, when it surpassed 30.

Over the last 6 months, God has done many other wonders in ShineKidz. We saw Harrison, a Primary 2 boy, professing faith in Christ. He and his mother were baptized in May. He now attends the Sunday Children Ministry weekly. Another Primary 3 boy, Damien, asked how he could become a child of God. Brother Simon Lim led him to accept Christ. Damien, his mother, and older sister have been attending our Sunday services regularly. His mother also shared that Damien has become more well-mannered since he accepted Christ.

Some Gospeliters have volunteered to run Gospel-centred activities for the students. Sister Debbie Liga faithfully does crafts with them fortnightly. Sister Suh Jiuian uses a Biblical Foundation of Character syllabus to help build God-centred character traits in the children. Brother Simon tells Bible stories weekly, and takes them on fishing excursions during the school holidays. These connections have provided opportunities to build bridges and trust to sow the Gospel.

Since April, Coach Yang, a retired table tennis trainer from China, has also been running a weekly program on Mondays. Together with Coach Zhang (who trains kids with greater athletic abilities), ShineKidz may become an 'incubator' for Singapore table tennis champions. Both coaches are pre-believers and regulars at our morning table tennis sessions.

If you have a passion to spend time nurturing primary school kids, whether through Bible stories, crafts, sports or music, write to us via shinekidz@gospellight.sg or Whatsapp us at 9776 5405. Our team would be delighted to chat with you!
