Matthew 7:22–23

On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name,
and do many mighty works in your name?'
And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you;
depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'

As for what was sown on good soil,
this is the one who hears the word and understands it.
He indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case a hundredfold,
in another sixty, and in another thirty.

I was in prison and you came to me.'

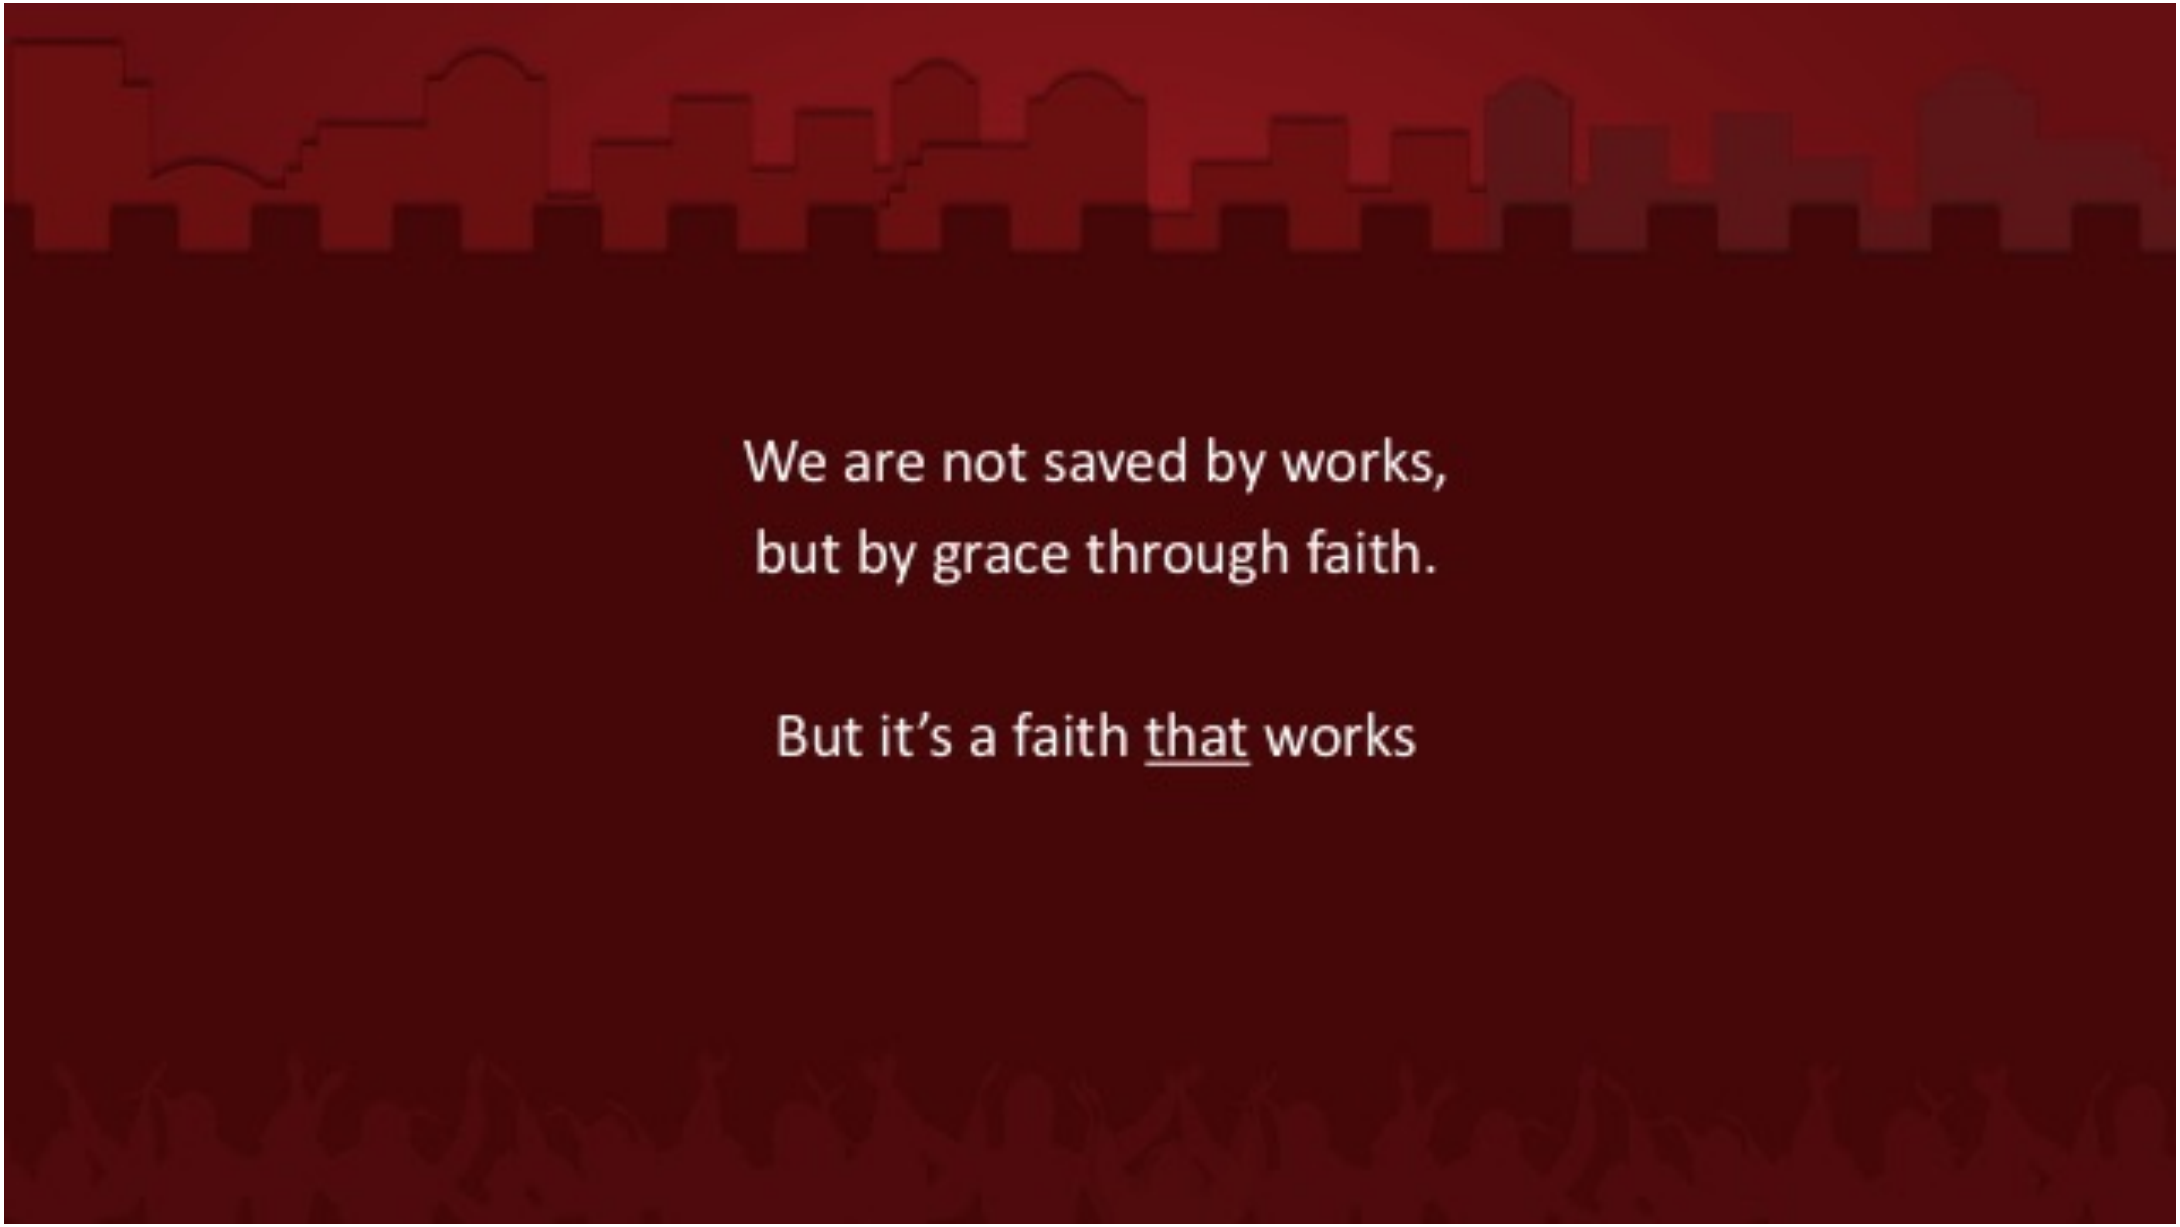
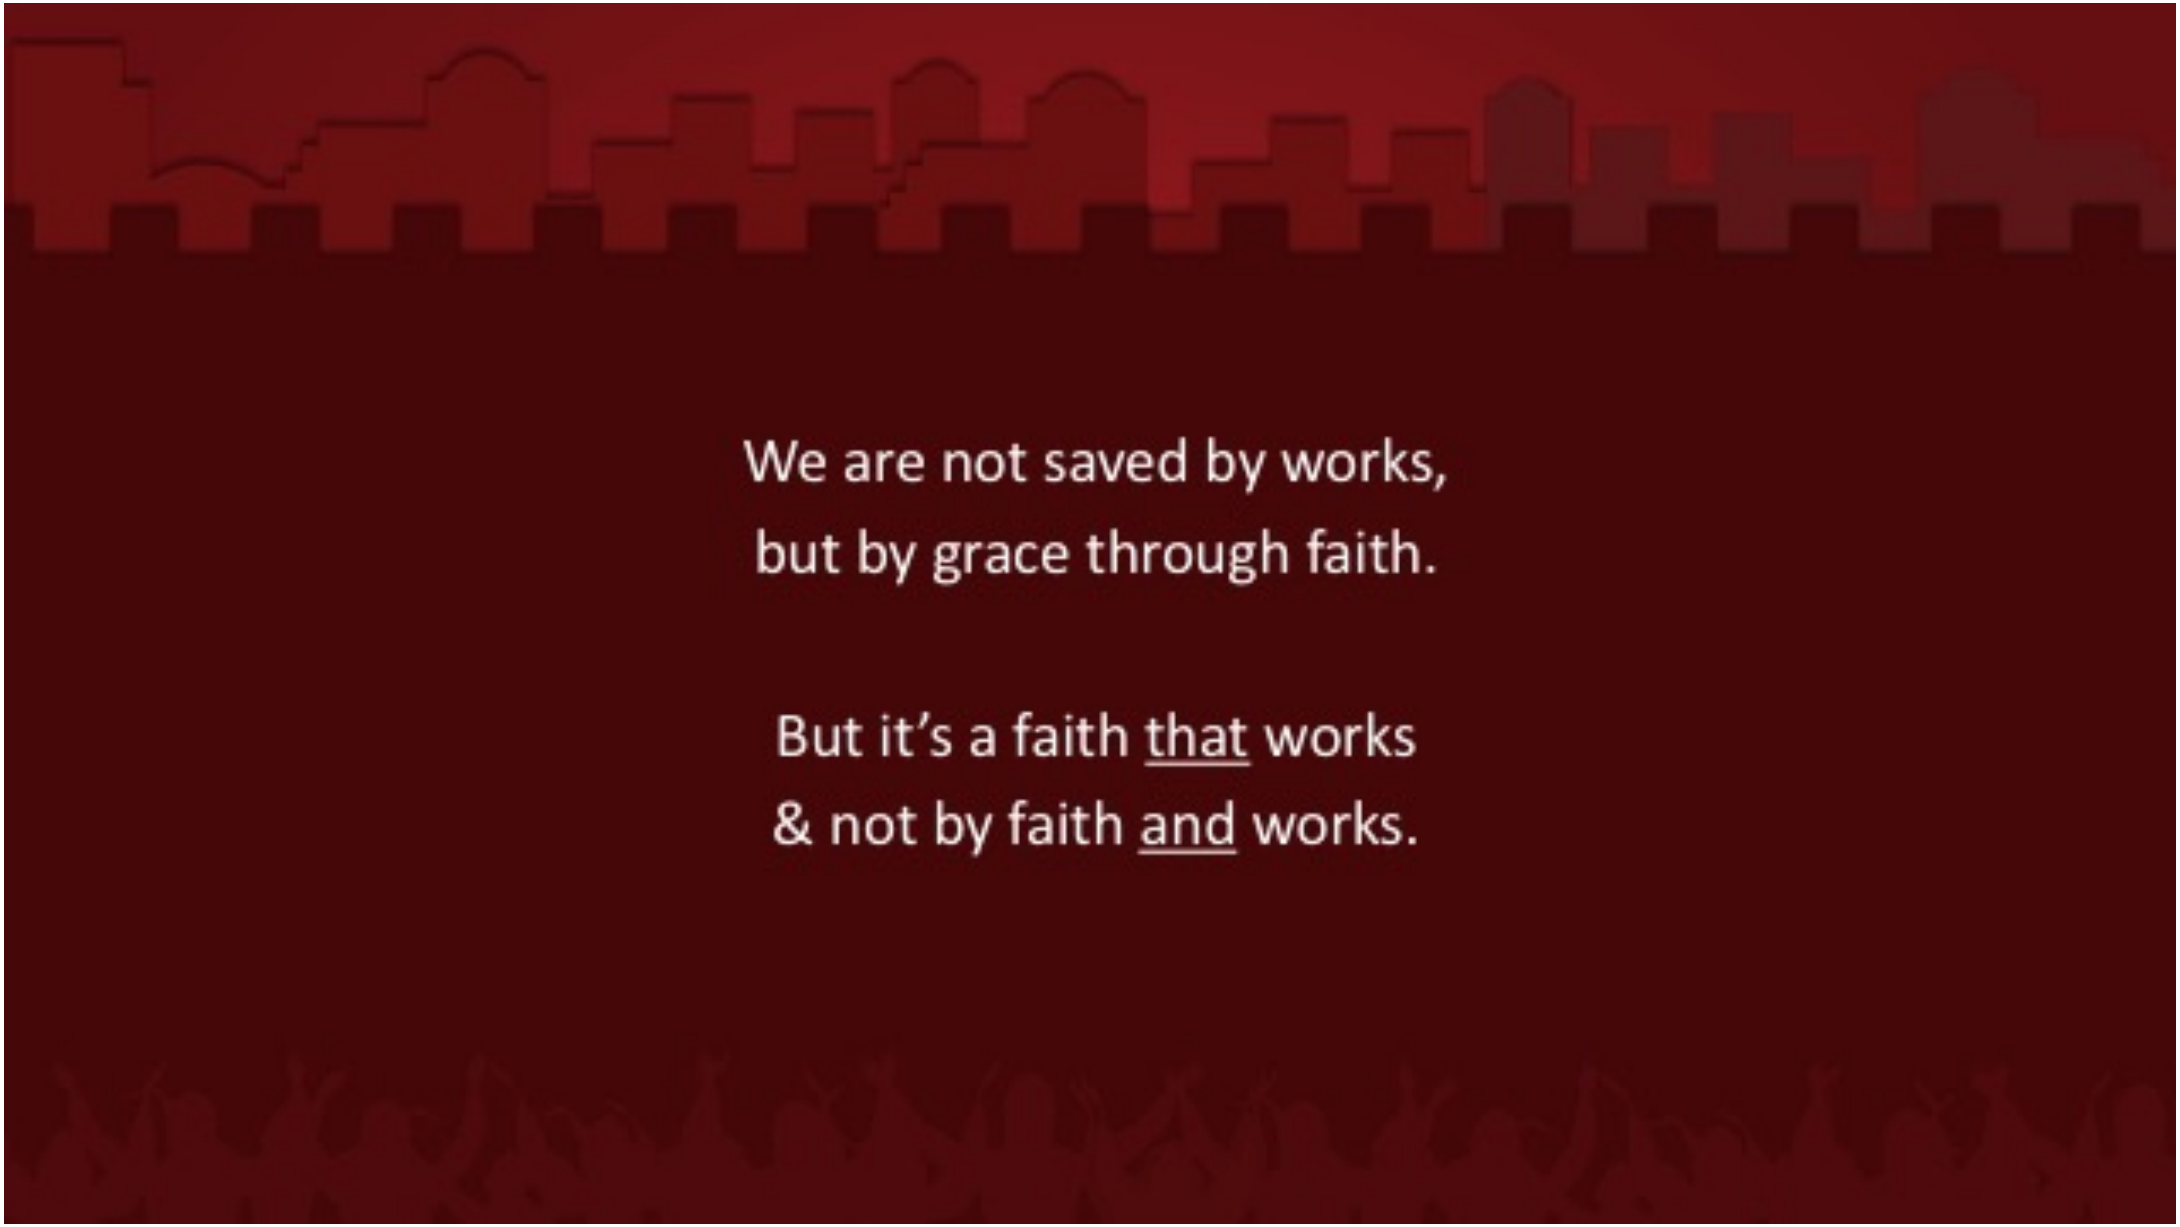
We are not saved by works,

We are not saved by works,
but by grace through faith.



We are not saved by works,
but by grace through faith.
But it's a faith that works



We are not saved by works,
but by grace through faith.
But it's a faith that works
& not by faith and works.

Ephesians 2:8–10

For by grace you have been saved through faith.
And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God,
not a result of works, so that no one may boast.

When I was a child of about four,
my mother shared the gospel with me through a tract
and I remember sitting in the study with her,
as she told me about Christ on the cross.

But I did not understand.

Baptism came when I was eight and again,

I never knew the significance of that ordinance.

So, I was born into a Christian home, grew up in church, heard the gospel, was baptized, and saw absolutely no life change.

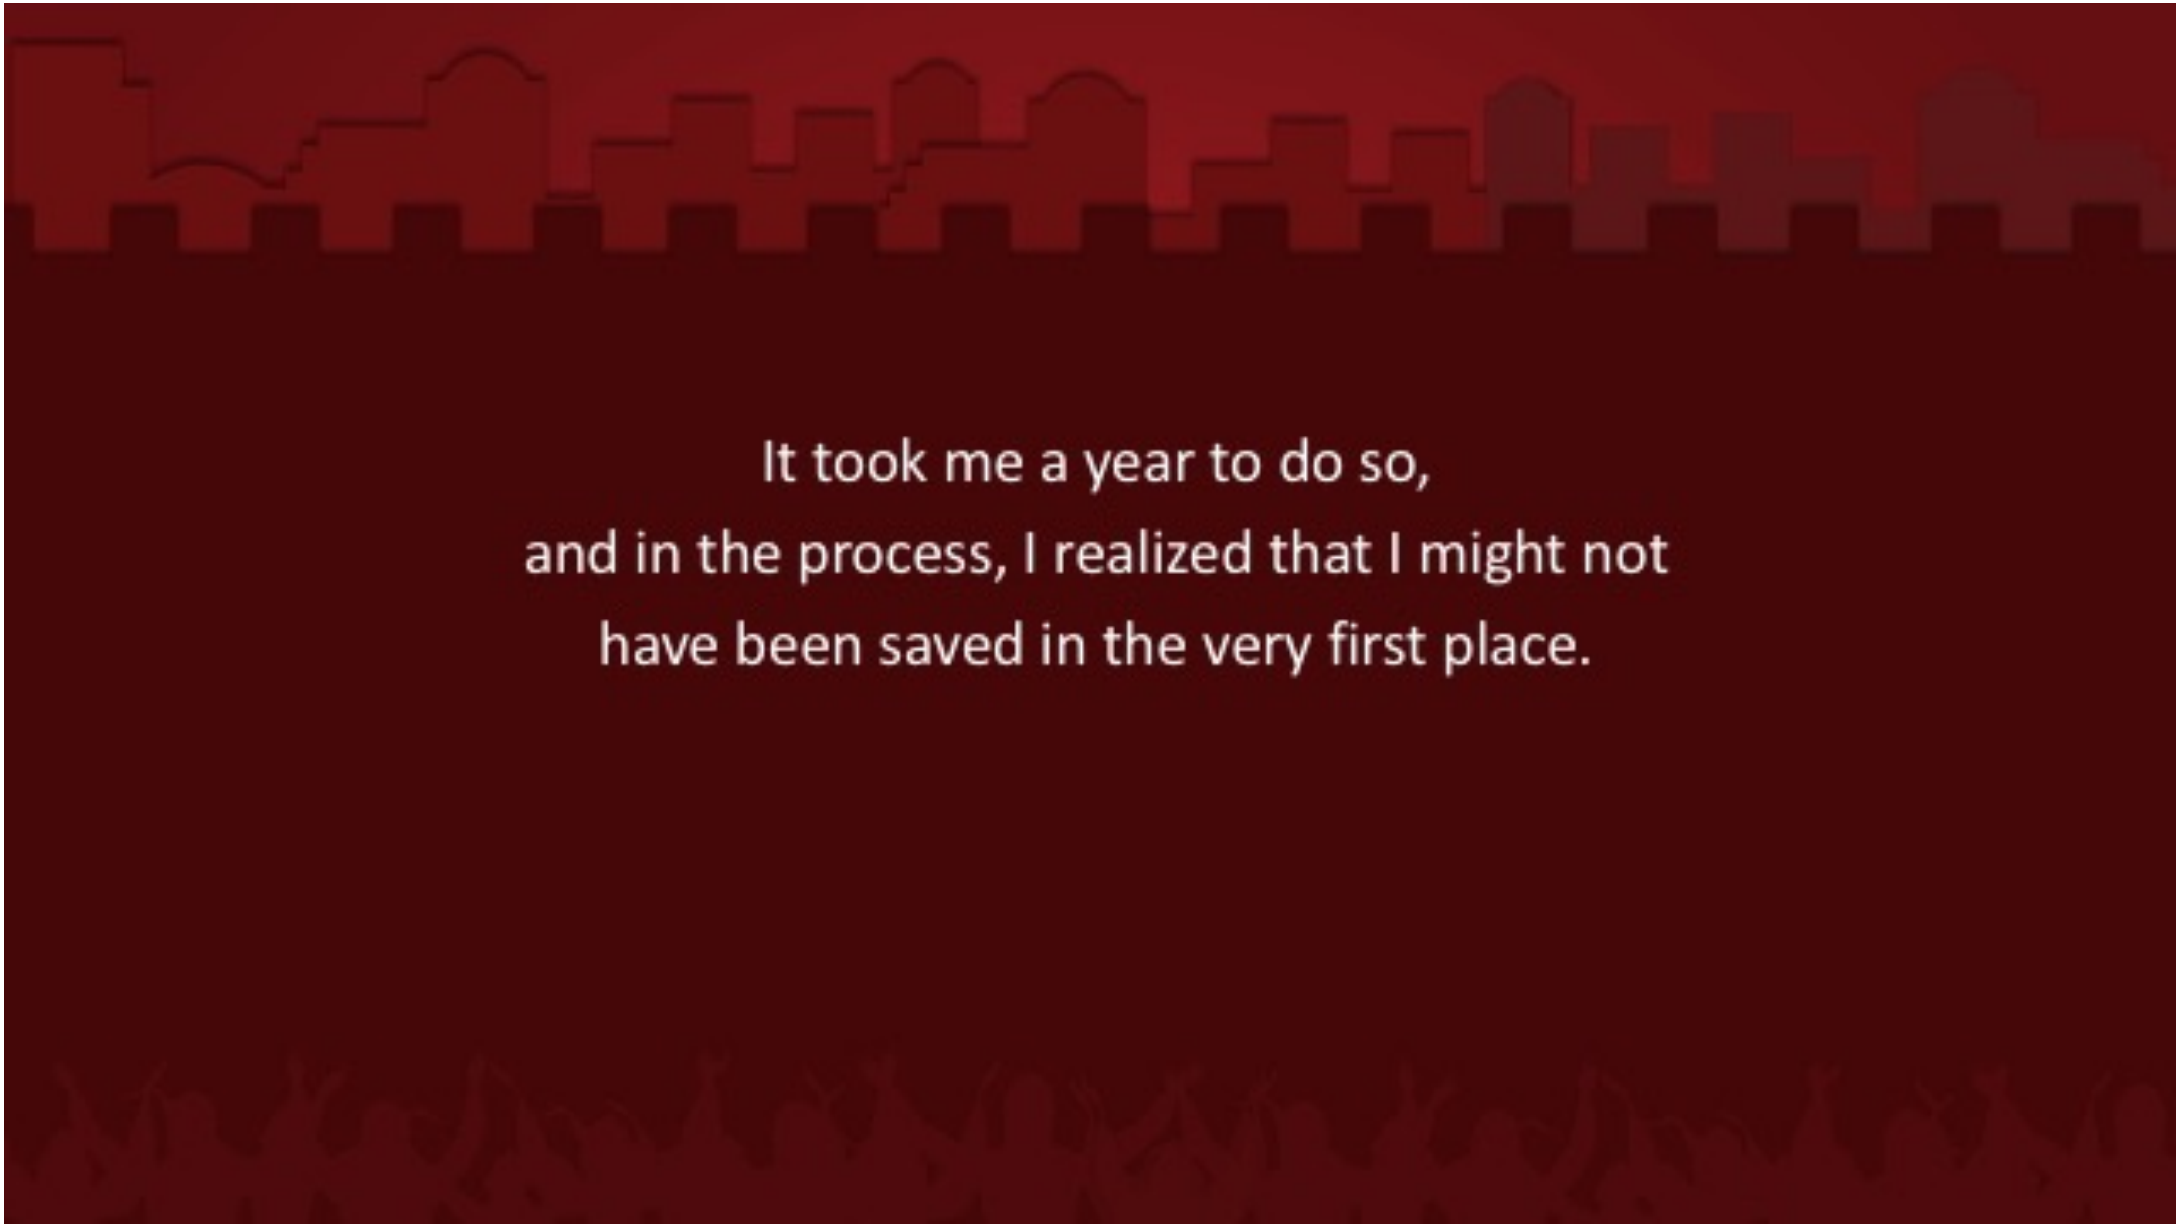
I found no desire to read the Word,
no desire to be holy and sanctified,
no true love for the people in the church,
and consistent sin.

Things reached a head in the army,
towards the last few months of my service.
I received a brand-new bible and told myself that for once,
I had to read it through.



It took me a year to do so,
and in the process, I realized that I might not have been saved in the very first place.

I discovered a new love for the things of God,
a greater appreciation of theology and most importantly,
an overwhelming desire for Christ, His work and His glory.

The grace of God is enduring and as the Spirit continues to bear witness to my soul that I have been united with the Son to the glory of the Father,
I can rest in that promise that as long as I persevere as He preserves, I will be conformed
to His image and rejoice with Him forever.
