

INTERVIEW WITH LUZERNE CHENG

Brother Luzerne Cheng was confirmed as a full-time staff member of the church recently. His appointment will be Young Adult Ministry Assistant Leader. We asked him some questions about his call to serve full-time.

1) Why did you choose to serve full-time?

It has been a calling that the Lord has had on my life for some time. This has grown and intensified throughout my life. Others have consistently re-affirmed this calling. At a young age I served with Yu Fei in the Youth ministry for 8 years, and this really opened up my eyes to the ministry of the local church.

Navigating through education was a little confusing. Although I enjoyed learning about Human Resources, there was a greater desire to serve His people in church. During army and university, God used different events and people to grow this desire to serve those outside His kingdom.

2) What were the major obstacles you faced before choosing this vocation?

I have been extremely blessed to have a most supportive wife, family and in-laws. While others considering full-time ministry would probably face objections from those closest to them, I have been blessed with a family that has supported my decision and encouraged me from the very beginning.

The biggest obstacle was personal uncertainty. This is not a vocation that my peers were dying to go into, or something that they could even understand. Each time I shared my aspirations to be a full-time staff member in church, I was met with nervous smiles and awkward silences. I felt like I was so different from everyone else several times. This made me second-guess myself.

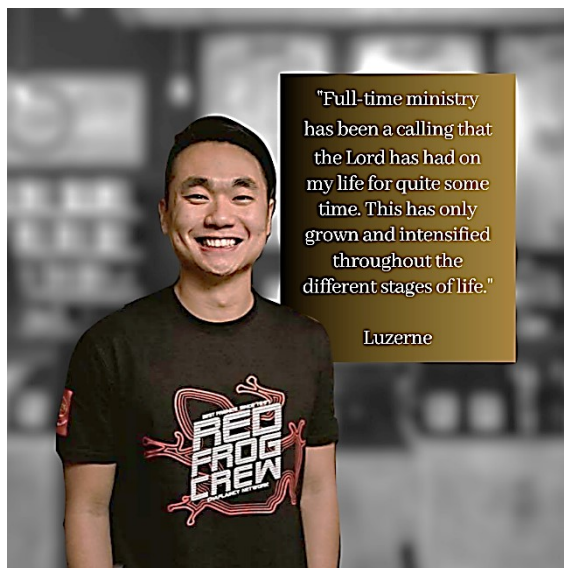

But looking back, in every season of uncertainty, God always placed wise older men to point me back in the right direction!

3) What are you most excited about in your future as a full-time staff member?

Reading and growing in His word, as I handle it on a daily basis. It is such a blessing to be able to grow in His word, and then be able to tell others what it is teaching me. And also having pastors and older men around to shepherd and guide me.

4) What would you say to others considering full-time ministry?

Keep praying! And join the apprenticeship and internship program. It gave me a good taste of what full-time ministry would be like and the confidence to step into it.
