

“
And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.
Mat. 24:14

SIGNS: THE END COMES

News headlines and social media feeds have been full of doom and gloom since COVID-19 erupted. The aroma of death pervades. Amid the bleak forecast for the global economy and fears about health and social security, we must ask ourselves: is this a temporary woe or a precursor for darker times?

In response to His disciples' remarks about the temple's magnificence (Matt. 24:1), Jesus revealed its impending destruction. The prophecy horrified His disciples, and they become both fearful and fascinated by future events. What follows in Matt. 24 to 25 are Jesus's jaw-dropping revelations about how the end will come.

Jesus's prophecy of the tribulation and His second coming is marked by the arrival of false messiahs, threats of war, global conflict, and natural disasters. At the tip of the tribulation spear is the person of the Antichrist and the Beast. As they set up their rule and rise in power, they will bring severe persecution on the Church. But Jesus's promise is that all who endure until He returns will be saved.

Although these will be the darkest days the earth will ever see, filled with chaos even in the cosmos, the good news is that the gospel will be preached with worldwide effectiveness. Multitudes from every nation will repent and acknowledge Jesus as Saviour. Amid the sufferings of the tribulation, the Church will experience perhaps its greatest revival.

In the darkest hour, when all hope seems lost, the nations will see Christ arriving. Unlike His humble first arrival, He will appear in awe-filled power and glory. This time, He will come to establish His Father's kingdom, the eternal dwelling of the saved, where His people will shine like the sun forever. (Matt. 13:43)

While we wait for His return, Jesus repeatedly warned us to "watch", "wait" and "be ready". The day, time and hour of His appearing is unknown. May we be ready so we can give an account of our lives!

Join us as we begin this new compelling sermon series on March 14th and 15th.

Blessings,
Gospel Light Communications Team
