

SUPERNATURAL RELATIONSHIPS

The Bible emphasizes real fellowship among Christians (1 Thess. 5:11, Heb. 10:25). This involves encouraging and growing together with other believers. If we are missing out on fellowship, we are missing out on a means of grace that God has given us.

Care Groups (CG) or Connect Groups provide a platform for meaningful relationships that go beyond biblical truths, and into the lives of one another. They are an opportunity to love one another. Such relationships are supernatural, bound up in the fact that we are all brothers and sisters because of the blood of Jesus. This causes us to put aside our individual differences and opinions to serve and love, not because we belong to similar demographics or have the same social interests but because we have first been loved by a God who is beyond comprehension. This is the basis of Christian love for one another.

“Such relationships are supernatural, bound up in the fact that we are all brothers and sisters because of the blood of Jesus”

My wife Belle and I have been so blessed to be part of a CG. We meet with our CG mates on Fridays, Sundays or over coffee any other day of the week! One of my fondest memories was when we were preparing to move into our very dusty and messy rental flat last year. We were so overwhelmed by the cleaning we had to do, and whether we could finish it in time for our wedding. After finding out that we needed help, almost the entire CG came over after a Sunday service to help.

One of the biggest blessings in my spiritual journey is intentional discipleship with a group of believers. There is so much more to the Christian journey than just attending services on Sunday, and I would love for many others to be able to experience this supernatural means of grace that God has given to us. CGs are definitely worth setting aside time for!
