

MINISTRY VOICES

Befrienders

It is a privilege and a joy for me to serve in the Befrienders Ministry. My involvement in this Ministry needed no gentle persuasion or long deliberation. Clearly it was the Lord's leading that I should participate in welcoming new visitors at Gospel Light.

Many years ago, I attended a Sunday church service in London. Even though I was an obvious new visitor, none spoke with me or showed any attention. The experience of being unwelcomed in that church made me determined to greet and open up to speak with newcomers at Gospel Light.

That I have the opportunity to serve in this Ministry is a wonderful blessing as I have the penchant to engage in conversations with strangers and be friends with them. God has blessed every one of us with different special gifts and specific passions. The Befrienders Ministry is an ideal platform to exercise mine and to be proactive in talking with newcomers to make them feel welcome at church.

"I can be blessed by all these only when I take the step to walk out of my comfort zone and when I have the right attitude of servitude to the Lord."

Traffic Marshals

I'm blessed through the conversations with my fellow traffic marshals, many of whom are more matured spiritually and in life's experience. There's always so much to learn from each other.

I'm blessed through the warm and friendly greetings of those who pass through the gates. It's encouraging to see God's people ready and excited to praise and hear His word.

I'm blessed through those who look out for us physically, giving us food and water to hydrate, giving us extra strength to stand out there in the heat, reminding me of Matt 25:35-40.

I'm blessed even through unfortunate, acrimonious encounters over parking lots. These encounters are lessons to love, be patient and be humble; to realise that we each have our own blind spots that we need to ask God to reveal.

I realise that I can be blessed by all these only when I take the step to walk out of my comfort zone and when I have the right attitude of servitude to the Lord.

"The experience of being unwelcomed in that church made me determined to greet and open up to speak with newcomers at Gospel Light."

We will be revising what we have studied so far in 1 John. We will also start on a new passage in 1 John 3:13-18. John reminds his readers that hatred is still the world's reaction toward the people of God (v. 13) and assures them that love of the brethren is the sign of the new birth (v. 14a) and that the practice of hatred is the sign of spiritual death (vv. 14b-15). Having shown what the presence or absence of love in one's life reveals, John next points out how love and hatred are manifested. He stresses the supreme manifestation of love in the self-sacrifice of Christ (v. 16a), indicates the obligation of believers to practice love (vv. 16b-17), and issues a call to practice true love (v. 18). We encourage as many of you who are available to join us online to learn these important truths. Newcomers are also welcome.

Class starts at 8pm SHARP.
