

CARE GROUPS IN COVID-19

It has been nearly three months since the start of the Circuit Breaker in Singapore. Local churches, which cannot hold physical services for now, have been forced into an extended period of self-reflection.

COVID-19 reveals the vulnerability of mankind and the fragility of life. We can see and relate to much fear and anxiety around us - fear of loved ones being infected, as well as the fear of losing our jobs or businesses as the economy declines.

We need encouragement, and it is during such times that being in a Care Group (CG) is all the more important. Being in such groups is a vital part of your relationship with God. We are created for deep relationship with God and with others. We need close friends who support us, encourage us, serve us, and hold us accountable. We want them to see us as we are, and what God is calling us to become.

We need a safe place where we can voice our fears, struggles, and joys. A group where God will work in and through each one of us to help us grow more Christ-like.

This COVID-19 epidemic creates opportunities for Gospel moments. We can spread love, care and hope. I recall Pastor Jason's message that the world has a virus infection that is far greater than all the viruses throughout history; that virus is sin. Praise God that in Jesus we have the remedy! We are His witnesses in words and in deeds. This is a time to love your neighbor. Good deeds will go a long way with a fearful public. Buy lunch for your neighbors, visit an elderly person who's staying alone, give out extra face masks, and text one another!

Care Group Leader

GENERAL NOTICES

Password: GLCCEBS

We will be revising what we have studied so far in 1 John. We will also start on a new passage in 1 John 3:19-24. The practice of Christian love also has a beneficial impact on the one who loves. In these verses John sets forth different aspects of the assurance that will arise in the heart of the believer from his practice of love; it is the fruit of the Spirit. The practice of love will produce inner assurance of being in the truth (vv. 19-20), give confidence that prayer will be answered (vv. 21-22), and assure the believer of his intimate union with Christ (vv. 23-24). We encourage as many of you who are available to join us online to learn these important truths. Newcomers are also welcome.

Class starts at 8pm SHARP.
