

LOVING OUR NEIGHBOUR IN COVID-19

Matthew 25:35 – “For I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed Me.”

In April, a spike in infections among migrant workers living in dormitories resulted in many being moved to isolation facilities. This created fear and anxiety not just among those infected, but the entire migrant worker community.

Gospel Light partnered with Pastor Jacob Bethapudi (who shepherds Telugu Christian Gospel Church, an affiliate of Gospel Light), Brother Raymond Tham, as well as Christian organizations to meet the needs and cries for help from this community. More than 1,000 migrant workers in various isolation centers were given food items in April and May. By early May, a further 1,000 workers in Tuas dormitories were adopted under this scheme.

Our Young Adults Leader Brother Luzerne Cheng led a group of young adults to prepare 1,000 care packs containing soap, shampoo, toothpaste, a toothbrush and muruku (a snack). Our team of drivers and volunteers delivered the care packs to the 5 dorms in the midst of the circuit breaker.

Another 1,000 care packs consisting of Vitamin C (sponsored and packed by Pastor Muk Kin Son’s family), a thank you card (designed by Gospel Light member Brother Favian Ee) and snacks were packed by our students from ShineKidz (after-school care). In Phase 2 of our outreach, we are planning to teach English via Zoom to these workers. This will provide opportunities for church volunteers to build bridges to ‘Give the Gospel!’

Gospel Light also started its ‘Safe, Sound, Sleeping Places’ or S3Ps with MSF (Ministry of Social & Family Development) during the Circuit Breaker period. We are thankful for the volunteers God rallied to help with the logistics, as well as befrienders who connected with the stayers.

We are also thankful for those who have given sacrificially and in faith in the midst of economic uncertainty. May we live out the words of Matthew 25:35 and minister to the homeless and strangers (foreigners) in our land.

In His Service,
Trevor Tan, Head (Community Engagement)

• EXPOSITORY BIBLE STUDY

We will be revising what we have studied so far in 1 John. We will also start on a new passage in 1 John 4:17-21. John continues to tell us the results in the life of the one who practices Christian love. God’s love abiding in the believer produces confidence in view of the future (v. 17) and casts out the feeling of fear (v. 18). John then turns to the results of redeeming love in the lives of believers in relation to others. In verse 19 he asserts the origin of this love, and then he insists that this love involves the obligation to reach out in love to one’s brother (vv. 20-21). We encourage as many of you who are available to join us online to learn these important truths.
